Union Funds Linked With Hoffa Payoff

Senators Charge $3 Million Deals To Please Underworld

WASHINGTON (AP)-The Senate committee investigating rackets charged today that James R. Hoffa paid "a long-standing debt to the Chicago underworld" with three million dollars of Teamsters Union health and welfare funds.

The committee in a report to the Senate, said that Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, personally swung the deals to please the underworld and benefit the family of Paul Dorfman. It said Dorfman is the man who introduced Hoffa to "Midwest mob society."

In Chicago, members of the Dorfman family were not available for comment.

The committee said Midwest Teamsters Union members paid dearly for the deals since 1950, in drastic reduction of health-welfare insurance benefits and inflated charges for the insurance.

The committee also filed two other reports with the Senate on its 1958 investigations, alleging:

1. That the brothers Max and Louis Block, who since have resigned as officials of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, "milked the treasuries" of two New York locals. The report said they got $241,000 out of the locals' treasuries for other purposes.

2. That the A & P stores' eastern division "participated in an elaborate conspiracy" with Max Block to force 10,000 A & P employes into his union under a 45-hour work week contract instead of the 40-hour week rival unions demanded.

In New York, E. L. Reynolds, A&P eastern division president, said full cooperation had been given the Senate committee in supplying information about company relations with the union, in which Block was a former power.

"The records submitted," Reynolds said, "clearly demonstrated

Some Poles Have Tears In Eyes

Thousands Wave Goodbye As Nixon Heads For U.S.

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Ten thousand Poles lined the streets of Warsaw today, waving and applauding, some with tears in their eyes as Vice President Richard M. Nixon left by jet plane for Washington.

"We came to Poland as friends," the vice president said in a farewell speech at the Babice Military Airport on the edge of Warsaw. "We are leaving Poland as better friends."

He is due at Washington's National Airport at 3:30 p.m. EDT after a 10½-hour jet flight, with a refueling stop at Keflavik, Iceland.

Nixon wound up his three days in Poland with another plea for "one world." He exchanged toasts to peace and friendship with Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz at a U.S. Embassy reception Tuesday night.

"We have different political and economic systems at this time, but whatever differences we have in the political and economic area should not keep apart two peoples who have so much friendship in their hearts for each other," he said.

"We hear a great deal of talk these days about two worlds. To me the concept of two worlds is basically negative and wrong. What we should all work for is one world in which each people has the choice of the political and economic system which it wants, and what is most important is that, despite what differences we have, we should find areas to cooperate together in peaceful pursuits."

Cyrankiewicz in response pledged that Poland and its Communist allies will do everything possible to avert the danger of another world war. But he loosed a blast at West Germany.

"We want to save the world and ourselves from the dangers of rising German militarism," the Premier declared.

Informal talk at the embassy party touched on the possibility of President Eisenhower's visiting Poland when he makes his trip to the Soviet Union. A Polish Foreign Office informant said no invitation to Eisenhower had been drafted yet and that "things like that take time."

Sees Parley As Prelude To 'Summit'

Soviet Chief Says He Holds Real Hope For Understanding

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev declared today in a news conference that he wanted to talk peace with President Eisenhower "without any sabre rattling."

Khrushchev told a news conference lasting an hour and a half that the talks with President Eisenhower were not intended to replace a summit conference but as a prelude to it.

He said his visit would afford an opportunity for talks — not negotiations.

He gave no precise dates for the exchange of visits. He probably will go to the United States in mid-September, he said, and President Eisenhower will come here later in the autumn.

"If these two powers establish good relations," the Soviet Premier said, "if they cooperate for peace, there will be lasting peace on earth."

He said he saw real opportunities for Soviet-American relations to be based on peace and friendship.

"There are no territorial disputes between our two countries, nor any in soluble contradictions, nor any issues which could prevent the establishment of a climate of confidence and mutual understanding," he declared.

To a question about whether he might show Eisenhower a rocket base, he replied:

"That might give a bad taste to the meeting between us."

Then he went on with references to what it would look like if he went to America with a rocket peeking out of his pocket.

He said he knew the United States was strong and that if he were invited to see American military installations, "I would not go."

"I can go as a peaceful man," he said, adding that when Eisenhower comes here he would be introduced to good Russian food.

"We must talk peace without sabre rattling," he declared.

"I do not attribute any particular significance to the form of exchanges of views between us, whether they be talks or an unofficial discussion," Khrushchev said.

"It is important at the end of an exchage of views to find a common language and a common understanding of the questions which we will have to settle."

He added that the state of relations between the world's two major powers "is extremely important for peace."

Election Board Awaits Rush Of Candidates

200 Filings Slated By Deadline Today As 27 More Enter

With the deadline only a few hours away, a flood of last-minute candidates for nonpartisan offices at the Nov. 3 general election was expected to send the total over the 200 mark, the County Election Board said today.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said the number probably will reach 200 or more by the 4 p. m. deadline, explaining tickets are not complete in some small villages and school districts.

Summitville has no aspirants for village offices while slates in Rogers, Hanoverton and New Waterford are virtually complete.

There have been no candidates so far for school board seats in the United Local and West Local districts and only one in Beaver Local and Franklin Local, O'Hanlon explained.

Only two incumbents have filed for new terms on the East Liverpool Board of Education but two candidates were expected to file to give the city a four-man contest for three seats for the first time in several years.

Twenty-seven new candidates entered overnight for the various offices boosting the total to 159, O'Hanlon said. There were 249 candidates in a similar contest at the 1957 general election.

Nine new aspirants entered for school posts.

They included George Wilkinson for Beaver Local Board of Education; Daniel P. Furey for County Board of Education, Jack H. Weyman and Richard H. Reash for the Columbiana Exempted Village Board of Education and Guy L. Nicolette for the Leetonia School Board.

Four candidates entered for the Southern Local Board of Education where an entire new board will be elected. Martin Adams became the fifth candidate for three four-year terms while Robert M. Cole, Charles N. Allison and Albert P. Eisenbarth filed for two-year terms where two will be elected.

The other new candidates include:

Falling Tree Damages Car And Cuts Power

The front of an East End man's auto was damaged extensively Tuesday night when a large tree fell across the hood and also snapped off a utility pole interrupting service to a few families.

An Ohio Power Co. crew was replacing the pole this morning while the tree remained across the auto owned by James E. Willey, 2003 Pennsylvania Ave. Ext.

Telephone lines on the pole were not damaged, an Ohio Bell Telephone Co. spokesman said.

Appeals Court Upsets Police Case Verdict

A 7th District Court of Appeals ruling has reversed the conviction of Ira Cunningham, former city police officer, and Jerry Raimond, onetime special officer, for a 1952 burglary of the Burbick Hardware Co. store.

The Appellate Court threw out the November 1958 jury conviction on grounds the case had not been prosecuted within the statuatory period.

County Prosecutor G. William Brokaw said immediately he would appeal the ruling to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Cunningham and Raimond were among seven officers and special officers against whom burglary indictments were found in April 1956, and in the past year, their attorneys have repeatedly argued the indictments should have been dropped when trials were not held within the prescribed three Court terms.

A notice from Appellate Judges Lynn B. Griffith, Elmer Phillips and John Donahue to Common Pleas Court today instructed the clerk to enter on the docket the reversal, along with the instruction, "defendants discharged as they should have been by the trial judge."

Robert Carroll, former city officer charged with the same entering, was acquitted by the jury in the November trial over which Judge Raymond Buzzard presided.

Robert McBane, ex-officer who pleaded guilty to the entering and eight others, was a prosecution witness in the case.

Cunningham has also filed an appeal of his conviction for attempting to bribe a prospective juror in the Burbick trial.

The Appellate Court ruling apparently casts some doubt on the status of the remaining indictments against the officers.

Louis Stuttler, ex-city officer, was convicted in December of a 1954 entering of the hardware on an indictment handed down in 1956.

Six 1956 indictments are still pending.

4 Are Killed During Revolt In Venezuela

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Armed troops kept vigil today over Venezuela's jittery capital, shaken by nine hours of bloody rioting in which at least 4 persons were killed and more than 100 wounded.

The demonstrations began Tuesday with a rally of workers protesting cancellation of an emergency public works project to provide jobs for the unemployed.

Goaded by agitators, the mob grew to about 10,000 persons and began roaming in bands through sections of the city, attacking police, shops and government buildings.

Police and government troops moved in and cleared the streets.

New Parking Ban Awaited On 36 Streets

Motorists Warned Tickets To Be Issued Effective Thursday

A new city ordinance will go into effect Thursday banning parking on the both sides of 36 city streets, including heavily-traveled E. 3rd St. from Market to College St., and also barring parking on the east side of 6 other streets and the west side of 5 others.

Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross and Police Americo J. Radeschi joined today in warning motorists tags will be issued to violators starting tomorrow.

The new ordinance amends the current law by adding additional streets to the no parking zone and lengthening the areas on other streets. It also repeals two existing ordinances regarding parking.

The penalty remains unchanged, however, with the law providing a fine not to exceed $10 and costs.

Here's the list of streets on which parking will be banned on both sides:

Apple Alley from E. 3rd St. to E. 6th St.; Burton Alley; Barlow Alley between W. 9th St. and Claiborne Ave.; Cherry Ln. between E. 3rd and E. 5th Sts.; Church Alley between Cherry Ln. and Broadway; Crook Alley between E. 4th and E. 5th Sts.; Crook Alley between E. 5th and E. 6th Sts. except commercial vehicles may park on the west side to load or unload.

Dew Drop Alley from St. Clair Ave. to Green Ln.; Diamond Alley from Market St. to Broadway except commercial vehicles can park on the south side to load or unload; Dresden Ave. from W. 9th St. to the city limits on paved portions and within six feet of pavement on uncurbed portions.

Drury Ln. from Jefferson St. to Broadway; Dry Ln. from Broadway to Walnut St.; E. 5th St. from Walnut to Sugar St.; E. 3rd St. from Market to College St.; Green Ln. from E. 6th St. to E. 8th St.; Grove Alley from E. 5th to E. 4th Sts; High Alley between Broadway and Apple Alley; Jackson St. from W. 6th to W. 7th St.; Lincoln Ave. from St. Clair Ave. to Smith St.; Lincoln Ave. from Smith St. to the Pennsylvania Railroad.

$39 Billion Approved For Defense Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has passed its biggest money bill of the session: $39,228,239,000 for defense.

It includes, among many other items, funds to plan a second nuclear aircraft carrier and to boost the number of Army reservists and Marines.

The bill, approved by voice vote in the House and by an 85-0 roll call vote in the Senate Tuesday, goes to the White House.

On Radio And TV Networks

Ike To Ask Labor Control In Speech Thursday Night

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will make a nationwide broadcast Thursday night to urge the enactment by Congress of effective labor control legislation.

Eisenhower will speak from his office at 7:30 p.m. (EDT) over the major radio and TV networks.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said the White House had asked for 15 minutes on the networks "to permit the President to talk to the nation on the need of the Congress to enact this year effective labor reform legislation."

Eisenhower presumably will ask for legislation much like that of the Landrum-Griffin bill, which has been offered in the House as a substitute for the bill drafted by the House Labor Committee.

At a news conference last week, the President spoke favorably of the measure sponsored by Reps. Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich).

Union leaders call this bill much tougher than the one reported by the House committee. The AFL-CIO is strongly opposed to it.

Eisenhower is known to want, outlawing blackmail picketing and tightening up laws on secondary boycotts.

He has been represented as regarding both the House committee bill as well as the bill already passed by the Senate as inadequate to correct abuses disclosed by the rackets committee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark).

Chester Trims Budget As Tax Revenues Fall

Exemption Of Bank Deposits From Tax To Cost City Heavily

Faced by a $7.5 million loss in taxable valuation on bank deposits, Chester Council Tuesday night trimmed the city's 1959-60 budget "to the bone" compared to previous years.

The city will lose $9,412 in income from Class I personal property tax revenue because of the elimination of almost $8 million in deposits of the Hancock County Federal Savings & Loan Association—due to a state amendment approved by voters last year exempting bank deposits from taxation.

The budget approved last night totals $56,188, compared to the 1958-59 budget of $54,141—but the current budget included $7,000 for a new fire truck which last year's statement did not have.

City receipts are estimated to be $38,051, leaving $18,137 to be raised by levy from property taxation. Last year's budget set receipts at $27,521 with the levy income at $26,620.

As a result of the sliced income, Council trimmed funds authorized for street labor, City Hall repairs, general police expense and caretakers' supplies and new police equipment.

Roy Cashdollar, clerk, also pointed out the financial condition of the city was hard hit last year by the destructive flood of mid-July which cost $4,700 for

New Charges Are Hurled In Steel Dispute

NEW YORK (AP) — David J. McDonald, head of the Steelworkers Union, charges the company tried to blackmail the government not to intervene in the three-week old steel strike.

R. Conrad Cooper, top industry negotiator, denies there was a threat to any one — "especially the government."

Cooper said McDonald's charge "brings more into focus the crying need for a real change in the union's attitudes."

The angry exchange of statements came on the eve of today's continued joint contract negotiations with the aid of federal mediators.

The new war of words broke out Tuesday night several hours after Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, had told newsmen he believed both sides were "tackling their problems in a less sterile way" than before.

Allied Powers Blame Russia

Herter Takes Slap At Soviet Attitude

GENEVA (AP) — The Western powers blamed the Soviet Union in the closing session of the Big Four conference today for their failure to reach agreement here on a Berlin settlement. They accused the Soviets of seeking to annex West Berlin to the Communist system.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter said that as far as he had been able to determine in almost 10 weeks of negotiation, the Soviet Union is "not really interested in improving the situation in Berlin."

"It is interested in getting the Western powers out of Berlin," he said in his final speech of the conference. "Apparently continued competitive coexistence of freedom and communism in Berlin is unrewarding to the Soviet Union."

"The Soviet proposals to date have seemed to us to be designed gradually to annex these people to the Communist system against their will. This cannot be permitted," he said.

The ministers agreed to recess the conference, not end it. But the date for resuming negotiations was left open. Far more important now are the discussions Eisenhower and Khrushchev will hold next month in Washington and later in Moscow.

Council Again Tables 'Code' For Wellsville

Measure To Control Building, Inspection Receives No Second

Wellsville City Council Tuesday night again tabled legislation to establish a building code after no member gave a second to a motion for a second reading.

Councilman Paul Nelson moved that the controversial ordinance be placed on second reading but the building code was tabled the second time when no one motioned for the action.

The code is designed to protect residents, both financially and physically, preventing improper electrical installation and improper building practices which contribute to fires, sponsors said.

The code should be voted on by residents or else "forgotten" Councilman Robert Runyon commented. Councilman Ancel Moore said a number of persons are opposed and "it is hard to actually decide what is needed." Runyon added that there had been several complaints on the proposal to adopt the code.

Fire Chief Robert Lewis spoke up for adoption, pointing out that "persons who make improvements themselves endanger their families and their neighbors when the work is not properly inspected." Lewis said at the last meeting, when the ordinance was first tabled, that the code does not hinder the "do-it-yourself" worker.

In other business of the hour-long session, a letter was read from the Postal Department advising Council that a search is being continued for an acceptable site for new Post Office facilities.

About 10,000 square feet of space is needed, with 4,700 square feet to be used for interior work

Steel Strikers May Apply For Free Food

Columbiana County and East Liverpool relief authorities will take applications from steel strikers Thursday from 9 a. m. to 12 noon at the Central Fire Station for surplus foods, according to Robert Bycroft, county welfare director, and head of the county surplus food program.

Applicants still must comply with state regulations to receive the surplus foods. All those eligible and certified will receive the food on Aug. 20, the next date of distribution in the city, Bycroft said.

Dried eggs, milk, flour and rice are expected to be available for August. Butter and corn meal were taken off for this month.

Rain Totals 1.71 Inches With Showers Still Due

Although the East Liverpool area got a soaking total of 1.71 inches of rain Tuesday, the Ohio weatherman refused to relent and forecast a chance of further showers or thundershowers today and tonight and possibly Thursday afternoon.

Dam 8 recorded the abnormal rainfall yesterday for one of the "wettest days" in weeks. Early July saw rainy days but less than an inch fell each time.

Meanwhile, temperatures are due to climb with a high of 82 to 87 forecast today and warmer tomorrow. The dam recorded a high of only 79 yesterday. The overnight low was 75. Tonight's low will be 65 to 70.

Appeals Court Upsets Police Case Verdict

A 7th District Court of Appeals ruling has reversed the conviction of Ira Cunningham, former city police officer, and Jerry Raimond, onetime special officer, for a 1952 burglary of the Burbick Hardware Co. store.

$39 Billion Approved For Defense Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has passed its biggest money bill of the session: $39,228,239,000 for defense.

It includes, among many other items, funds to plan a second nuclear aircraft carrier and to boost the number of Army reservists and Marines.

The bill, approved by voice vote in the House and by an 85-0 roll call vote in the Senate Tuesday, goes to the White House.

Chester Trims Budget As Tax Revenues Fall

Exemption Of Bank Deposits From Tax To Cost City Heavily

Faced by a $7.5 million loss in taxable valuation on bank deposits, Chester Council Tuesday night trimmed the city's 1959-60 budget "to the bone" compared to previous years.

The city will lose $9,412 in income from Class I personal property tax revenue because of the elimination of almost $8 million in deposits of the Hancock County Federal Savings & Loan Association—due to a state amendment approved by voters last year exempting bank deposits from taxation.

The budget approved last night totals $56,188, compared to the 1958-59 budget of $54,141—but the current budget included $7,000 for a new fire truck which last year's statement did not have.

City receipts are estimated to be $38,051, leaving $18,137 to be raised by levy from property taxation. Last year's budget set receipts at $27,521 with the levy income at $26,620.

As a result of the sliced income, Council trimmed funds authorized for street labor, City Hall repairs, general police expense and caretakers' supplies and new police equipment.

Roy Cashdollar, clerk, also pointed out the financial condition of the city was hard hit last year by the destructive flood of mid-July which cost $4,700 for

New Charges Are Hurled In Steel Dispute

NEW YORK (AP) — David J. McDonald, head of the Steelworkers Union, charges the company tried to blackmail the government not to intervene in the three-week old steel strike.

R. Conrad Cooper, top industry negotiator, denies there was a threat to any one — "especially the government."

Cooper said McDonald's charge "brings more into focus the crying need for a real change in the union's attitudes."

The angry exchange of statements came on the eve of today's continued joint contract negotiations with the aid of federal mediators.

The new war of words broke out Tuesday night several hours after Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, had told newsmen he believed both sides were "tackling their problems in a less sterile way" than before.

Allied Powers Blame Russia

Herter Takes Slap At Soviet Attitude

GENEVA (AP) — The Western powers blamed the Soviet Union in the closing session of the Big Four conference today for their failure to reach agreement here on a Berlin settlement. They accused the Soviets of seeking to annex West Berlin to the Communist system.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter said that as far as he had been able to determine in almost 10 weeks of negotiation, the Soviet Union is "not really interested in improving the situation in Berlin."

"It is interested in getting the Western powers out of Berlin," he said in his final speech of the conference. "Apparently continued competitive coexistence of freedom and communism in Berlin is unrewarding to the Soviet Union."

"The Soviet proposals to date have seemed to us to be designed gradually to annex these people to the Communist system against their will. This cannot be permitted," he said.

The ministers agreed to recess the conference, not end it. But the date for resuming negotiations was left open. Far more important now are the discussions Eisenhower and Khrushchev will hold next month in Washington and later in Moscow.

Council Again Tables 'Code' For Wellsville

Measure To Control Building, Inspection Receives No Second

Wellsville City Council Tuesday night again tabled legislation to establish a building code after no member gave a second to a motion for a second reading.

Councilman Paul Nelson moved that the controversial ordinance be placed on second reading but the building code was tabled the second time when no one motioned for the action.

The code is designed to protect residents, both financially and physically, preventing improper electrical installation and improper building practices which contribute to fires, sponsors said.

The code should be voted on by residents or else "forgotten" Councilman Robert Runyon commented. Councilman Ancel Moore said a number of persons are opposed and "it is hard to actually decide what is needed." Runyon added that there had been several complaints on the proposal to adopt the code.

Fire Chief Robert Lewis spoke up for adoption, pointing out that "persons who make improvements themselves endanger their families and their neighbors when the work is not properly inspected." Lewis said at the last meeting, when the ordinance was first tabled, that the code does not hinder the "do-it-yourself" worker.

In other business of the hour-long session, a letter was read from the Postal Department advising Council that a search is being continued for an acceptable site for new Post Office facilities.

About 10,000 square feet of space is needed, with 4,700 square feet to be used for interior work

Steel Strikers May Apply For Free Food

Columbiana County and East Liverpool relief authorities will take applications from steel strikers Thursday from 9 a. m. to 12 noon at the Central Fire Station for surplus foods, according to Robert Bycroft, county welfare director, and head of the county surplus food program.

Applicants still must comply with state regulations to receive the surplus foods. All those eligible and certified will receive the food on Aug. 20, the next date of distribution in the city, Bycroft said.

Dried eggs, milk, flour and rice are expected to be available for August. Butter and corn meal were taken off for this month.

Rain Totals 1.71 Inches With Showers Still Due

Although the East Liverpool area got a soaking total of 1.71 inches of rain Tuesday, the Ohio weatherman refused to relent and forecast a chance of further showers or thundershowers today and tonight and possibly Thursday afternoon.

Dam 8 recorded the abnormal rainfall yesterday for one of the "wettest days" in weeks. Early July saw rainy days but less than an inch fell each time.

Meanwhile, temperatures are due to climb with a high of 82 to 87 forecast today and warmer tomorrow. The dam recorded a high of only 79 yesterday. The overnight low was 75. Tonight's low will be 65 to 70.

Ike To Ask Labor Control In Speech Thursday Night

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will make a nationwide broadcast Thursday night to urge the enactment by Congress of effective labor control legislation.

Eisenhower will speak from his office at 7:30 p.m. (EDT) over the major radio and TV networks.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said the White House had asked for 15 minutes on the networks "to permit the President to talk to the nation on the need of the Congress to enact this year effective labor reform legislation."

Eisenhower presumably will ask for legislation much like that of the Landrum-Griffin bill, which has been offered in the House as a substitute for the bill drafted by the House Labor Committee.

At a news conference last week, the President spoke favorably of the measure sponsored by Reps. Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich).

Union leaders call this bill much tougher than the one reported by the House committee. The AFL-CIO is strongly opposed to it.

Eisenhower is known to want outlawing blackmail picketing and tightening up laws on secondary boycotts.

He has been represented as regarding both the House committee bill as well as the bill already passed by the Senate as inadequate to correct abuses disclosed by the rackets committee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark).

EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW

A Dependable Newspaper Serving the Tri-State District

The Stamps Tell A Story

The report on federal gambling stamps offers a fairly accurate insight into law enforcement in counties of immediate interest to residents of the tri-state district.

According to records of the Cleveland office of the Internal Revenue Service, only one such stamp has been issued in Columbiana County since July 1 for the present fiscal year compared with 13 each in nearby Jefferson and Belmont counties.

And in neighboring Hancock County, the Revenue Department at Parkersburg, W. Va., reported 57 stamps obtained.

For the first time in years no stamp was listed for East Liverpool.

The above figures do not necessarily mean that there is no gambling going on in East Liverpool or that there is only one spot in Columbiana County where it flourishes. That could be the case or it could not be the case. But it does stand to reason that gambling activities are at a minimum in the city and throughout the rest of the county.

And most of the credit must go to proper policing by the authorities. If the will to close up illegal spots is there, there generally is a way—although it some times takes much longer than desired.

On the whole, authorities in East Liverpool and other Columbiana County communities have given every indication that they feel gambling must go. The stamp report reflects their efforts in that direction.

In contrast, both Jefferson and Belmont counties have been fairly wide open over the years despite many conscientious efforts to have them otherwise. The big problem has been to get key law enforcement agencies and others to cooperate to the extent necessary with those favoring a cleanup.

The Hancock County situation is widely known.

From the governor on down there has been little to indicate that anyone in the proper places intends to do anything to correct the situation. The result—a rush to the gambling stamp windows.

It makes sense that there will be far less gambling in areas where enforcement authorities are doing a conscientious job than in those where they are lax.

The stamp report tells the story well.

Vice President Nixon's Early Foot

It is no secret now that Vice President Nixon on his Russian visit has brought off the slickest stroke of political business since he turned disaster into triumph with his vow-of-integrity speech in the 1952 campaign.

This is apart from, though not entirely separate from, his high-level diplomatic mission. To the extent that he has improved his attractiveness as a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination by the way he has handled himself in Russia, he may have improved the prospects of more harmonious relations with the Soviet Union.

Premier Khrushchev and his advisers are just as aware as anyone else accustomed to testing the direction of the political wind that they may have been hobnobbing with the next president of the United States at the same time they were entertaining the current vice president.

A citizen-voter cannot help but remember how New Deal Democrats used to make political capital of Franklin Roosevelt's ability to get along with men like Stalin and Churchill on easy terms and that one of Dwight Eisenhower's selling points when he was being sold to the country in 1952 was his familiarity with Very Important Personages abroad.

MR. NIXON has the early foot in this respect in the 1960 race. More than any other American who has had the benefit of the Moscow dateline, he has made the impression of talking as much as he listened; he has been a positive advocate. And as the half hundred reporters who are with him are pointing out in amazement, he is as irrepressible a campaigner on his Russian tour as he is at home.

It is as though he had been given a chance to warm up for the big game ahead by practicing in another contest. One correspondent, James Reston of The New York Times, calls it the "first innovation in American politics since the women's vote." Reston suggests Mr. Nixon has not been so happy since the resignation of Harold Stassen.

Everything a politician does has bearing on his standing as a politician; that is obvious. The trick is to make it have favorable bearng.

Mr. Nixon's forthright behavior under trying circumstances in a country whose leaders are plainly in a mood to achieve a working basis of economic harmony with the United States, if they can do it without losing any of their ideological identity, has helped him as a politician.

EVEN MORE than that, it has helped the Republican party's prospects for 1960. It is certain that the party's presidential nominee, whether he is Richard Nixon or someone else, will have to come up and exceed the very favorable image of Richard Nixon that has been brought to a new degree of attractiveness by his Russian visit.

There is beginning to be a new kind of talk in U.S. political circles. It is remindful of a new kind of talk being heard in the American League.

Circumstances alter cases; that is the new theme. The New York Yankees were walkaway favorites in the American League until circumstances altered cases. The Democrats were favored to win both houses of Congress and go into the presidential contest with an edge in the polls until Mr. Nixon staged his warmup campaign in Russia. A new circumstance has come into existence.

First-Class Idea In The Making

The Eisenhower administration did not even go through the motions of predicting disaster last week when the House of Representatives lopped off more than a third of a billion from a foreign aid total that already had been bobtailed by another third of a billion.

The effort would have been wasted anyway, because it now is too well known that every foreign-aid proposal for some 15 years has been pruned with no visible adverse effect on the administration's program. There is evidence that if there had been more pruning the program would have fared better because it has suffered from an excess of funds. That is, there always has been more money available than its distributors could use to good advantage, and this has tempted them to authorize much spending that has hurt as much as it has helped its intended beneficiaries.

A first-class idea is in the making among Americans who wonder about the more than 80 billion dollars' worth of foreign aid paid out since the end of World War II and the more than three billion that will follow it in the current budget.

It is the idea that even a good thing must stop eventually lest it turn into a bad thing and that the time now is at hand to set a terminal date for foreign aid.

This would not be difficult. If the date were to be set for the end of this session of Congress, for example, it would be many years before all unexpended balances could be used up.

Furthermore, if there could be a clear division between credit advanced to credit-poor countries with prospects of repying long-term loans and all forms of aid that promise no return at all, the former could be continued indefinitely and the latter could be brought to quick termination. It is the objectionable part.

U.S. taxpayers have been patient. They have been generous. They even have been tolerant and understanding. They have realized, for example, that foreign aid was a defense bargain in some instances. But they always have realized another thing that still seems not to be realized by foreign-aid advocates—that even a good thing has to stop sometime.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The big man on the committee trying to find the causes of the shocking brutalities, exceeding the tactics of primitive savage in streets, parks and schoolyards, dropped into our house. "Where do our young people and adults get such frightful ideas of decent behavior?" he demanded. (The TV wrestling show was on and at this point one wrestler kicked the other in the stomach, knocked him down, jumped on him and stuck his thumb in his eye, while the referee lit cigarette and waved to children watching the telecast.)

"Our committee is going all-out in an effort to explain the shocking assaults all over the land," admitted the caller sadly. "It's a very difficult problem." (Now the fallen grappler freed himself by chewing of his opponent's middle finger. He slammed him, into a corner and slugged him again and again despite the fact the opponent's hands were at his side.

THE REFEREE was asking a motherly spectator not to get bored, as the show would get exciting later on.)

"Daily we read of kids cruelly beating up other kids in defiance of every code of human decency," our distressed friend went on. "What is influencing them?" (Here one wrestler threw the other over the ropes out of the ring, chased him around the arena and floored him with a sportswriter's table. Women and children in the ringside audience cheered wildly.)

"I think our fight against this barbaric, ghoulish brutality needs a new slogan, a presidential proclamation and, of course, a slam at parents," said our friend. (Now one wrestler pinned the other to the floor whereupon a friend leaped into the ring and beat the fallen man into insensibility with a wooden chair, while the referee posed for a TV closeup registering unconcern.)

"Know what I think," asked our friend, who didn't seem to be paying any attention to the show.

"No," we said, "but you and your committee had better start noticeing the glorification of foul plays by pro wrestling on family TV sets. And you might ask TV biggies about their codes of good conduct."

HAWAIIAN ELECTION was decided by a "straw vote," obviously. And we heard of a voter who was late to the polls because his surfboard broke down.

Roger Blough, U.S. Steel chief, started out to be a small-town schoolteacher, then decided to study for the ministry and finally switched to law. As a young attorney he attracted attention of the steel company head, who hired him as a company counsel.

Jim Farley is reported favored by Gov. Rockefeller as a member of trotting track commission. Jim was once a boxing czar, and there is more "boxing" in one trotting race than in a month's Garden fights.

They Say Incomes Are At An All-Time High

'Stay Out Of Our Affairs, Please'

By Victor Riesel

NARO, KENYA

They've been fighting here with bows and arrows and spears. Now all is quiet. Around me are the Masai tribesmen. I've been sharing their flies — by the hundreds. I've been at their round huts—made of hardened cow dung, which they also use as a poultice for wounds. I've handled their iron spears.

Victor Riesel

I've tried to tell them about America. They never heard of it. The old men, carrying the fly chasers as a sign of influence, won't believe there is such a place.

They asked about my eyes. I told them. They rattled their spears. They called me a warrior. They said proudly they are warriors too and the men in their manyatta (family group) led all the rest with 16 lion kills. How many have I killed? I retreated from that one—my face as red as the ocher dye made their hair and their skin.

At high noon it was 130 degrees in the sun. There were no mad dogs about but back in Nairobi there were angry Englishmen and bitter Kenyans. They believe that the United States in general and American labor leaders in particular are unfairly interfering in their affairs and their politics.

THEY HAD SUGGESTED this drive out towards the Ngong Hills, the Magadi Lake and this area, all within 60 to 80 miles from the metropolitan city of Nairobi. They had suggested I stay with the tribal Africans for a while.

The nearest were the Masai warriors who have rejected civilization's virtues just down the road on this strange continent. And the highest British and Kenyan officials said I would discover why they don't believe concepts of Western democracy can fit onto this continent.

I was startled to hear the AFL-CIO leadership discussed by the Kenyan equivalent of the president of the United States and by lesser ministerial officers. They wanted to know why the AFL-CIO was pouring tens of thousands of dollars into the Kenya labor movement made up totally of Africans.

They asked that the British and Kenyan point of view be presented to America, since the other side was being pictured in our press and on the airwaves back home.

The "settlers", — some of them go back 100 years — asked me to tell the American labor chiefs to stop throwing money into the Kenya Federation of Labor, led by Tom Mboya (of "Meet the Press" fame), because that organization is the backbone of the African political movements which want to drive out the whites.

I SAID I'D REPORT the white settlers' point of view, as an objective balance to the others. They protested against the Africans' cry for "undiluted democracy."

The British and Kenyan government people decried the Africans' "one-man, one-vote" slogan. The settlers said go out of the big cities — anywhere within a hundred mile arc and you're back in areas civilization has hardly touched.

I then read reports of the fighting over cattle between the Kamba and the Mbere tribes at Karangiri Ferry in the Nyeri area — just 80 miles up.

I drove to another site where the Masai, East Africa's toughest fighters, used bows and arrows for the second time in the past month. They fought a regular battle with the Kipsigis.

I went into lion country near Magadi. There the doctor of a modern hospital — reading from his records — reported that the Masai drifted in mostly to be treated for wounds from lions' claws.

The government people told me I'd find these things. They said that's why they believe Africa is not ready for Western type democracy. They said that's why they do not permit even the handful of learned Africans to launch a national political party and restrict them to regional activity. Nor do they permit them to hold outdoor meetings or use loudspeakers on the streets.

GOVERNMENT PEOPLE said that they feared that the eloquent African leaders would make rash promises to the millions of illiterate people — about 80 per cent of the seven million Africans here. Officials asserted that is why they tape record all political talks and restrict African leaders to small halls for the most part, though they do allow the Kenya Federation of Labor (high political) to run rallies in the Makadara Hall holding more than 5,000. I attended one of these myself. There I learned that the African labor people have $35,000 from the AFL-CIO for a new building here.

This sort of financial support bolsters the Africans against the rest of the people here, the government says. And it bolsters a group of African leaders who, though brilliant, do not speak for the millions of people out in the veldt and jungle. No one speaks for them. They're just not interested. They have their cattle and they've been hit by inflation because the cost of wives and living has gone up.

To sum it up, the settlers and government point of view is: American labor leaders should stay out of their affairs.

Little Political Mileage

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

There's scant political mileage for Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the Eisenhower-Khrushchev exchange of visits unless his part in bringing them about was bigger than President Eisenhower has revealed so far.

He had nothing to do with them, judging from what Eisenhower says.

Some political commentators see in Nixon's Soviet-Polish visits —particularly since he handled himself so well both places—a big boon to his ambitions for the Republican presidential nomination in 1960.

There's another view: that public recollection of Nixon's overseas journeys will be dim and lost in later events by the time of the 1960 conventions unless he accomplished something sensationally memorable in the Soviet Union.

So far as is known, he didn't.

The only sensational event while he was overseas was the news that Eisenhower and Khrushchev would visit each other. It would have added immensely to Nixon's prestige if his followers could claim he had a key role in arranging it.

There had been wide speculation —before and during Nixon's Soviet trip—that he might try to crown his Moscow visit by bringing about a meeting of the two leaders.

But Eisenhower himself undercut such an idea—although saying Nixon had acted "splendidly"—by publicly stating his role, and minimizing Nixon's, in arranging for the visits.

The President, at the very start of his Monday news conference announcement about the exchange of visits, said he was the one who had initiated the correspondence and agreements on them. He said he had started the ball rolling early in July.

But he disclosed he hadn't mentioned this to Nixon until the day, or day before, the vice president set out for Moscow. That was July 22.

Nixon, at his own news conference in Moscow Sunday, said "on balance, I believe that at some time Mr. Khrushchev should be invited. . .to the United States."

The next day—during the President's announcement Khrushchev would come — Eisenhower was asked by a reporter if the vice president had acted with or without his permission in suggesting in Moscow the Premier should come here.

Eisenhower seemed to brush aside the Nixon suggestion as of no importance. The President referred to it as an "offhand" remark.

He said the only ban he put on Nixon before he left was not to bring up in Moscow the subject of a Khrushchev visit unless the Russians mentioned it. Apparently, they did.

The President gave no explanation for waiting until just before Nixon left for Moscow to tell him the extremely important fact that Eisenhower was trying to arrange a meeting with Khrushchev.

He did explain why he finally told Nixon: "So that you will not be astonished or surprised and feel let down by your government" if the Russians started talking about the negotiations for Khrushchev's visit.

This could be interpreted as meaning the President attached so little importance to anything Nixon might do that the only reason he mentioned it to him was to save him from the embarrassment of being ignorant of the whole business if the Russians mentioned it.

A Futile Gesture

By David Lawrence

Khrushchev Visit Offers Little Hope For Peace

President Eisenhower certainly deserves an "A" for effort in trying to maintain world peace — but his decision to invite Soviet Premier Khrushchev to visit the United States will probably prove, through no fault of the President, as futile a gesture as was the summit conference of 1955 at Geneva. Memories are short, but only four years have passed since Mr. Eisenhower fraternized with the top leaders of the Kremlin, including Nikita Khrushchev, amid worldwide acclaim and enthusiastic comments in the West that this was the way to bring about an easing of tensions and a solution of the current controversies of the cold war.

David Lawrence

But every pledge made at Geneva has since been broken by the Soviet government. It became necessary afterwards for the United States actually to take a military posture in the Far East to prevent a Soviet - inspired invasion of Formose by Red China's forces. Also, the United States had to land Marines in Lebanon and take other measures to forestall a Soviet conquest of the Middle East.

Not only has the solemn promise, made in the 1955 summit meeting at Geneva, to assure the reunification of Germany been broken but within the last few months the Moscow government has issued an ultimatum to the Western powers to withdraw their forces from West Berlin or face the threat of war.

For several weeks now it has been the American position that there must be some "give" on the part of the Soviets before there could be a summit conference. The Moscow government has refused to give an inch. Consequently, the conference of the four foreign ministers has been deadlocked and is ending in failure.

THE PRESIDENT has said there would be no summit conference until developments at Geneva "justified it." Nikita Khrushchev insisted that the foreign ministers couldn't settle anything and that the summit was the place to do it. He hasn't yet had his way entirely on that point but he will have a chance in a two-man summit meeting to indicate whether the Soviets mean to withdraw their ultimatum on West Berlin.

Meanwhile, the President will go to London and Paris later this month to canvass the views of Prime Minister Macmillan of Britain and President de Gaulle of France.

Presumably, Mr. Eisenhower will reflect the views of the Western Allies when he meets Khrushchev, though the President will, as he says, not be their authorized spokesman in a formal sense. Then, after Premier Khrushchev has visited America, Mr. Eisenhower will pay a return visit to the Soviet Union.

Two points of view prevail today about the exchange of visits between the Soviet Dictator and the American President. One is that tension will be eased and the cold war will thaw out a bit. The other view is that Khrushchev will tighten his hold on the Soviet people and will tell them that America now accepts the leaders of Communism as equals.

With a controlled press, this will mean misleading propaganda inside the Soviet Union and within the countries occupied by Soviet Troops.

The impression will be cultivated that the United States no longer is hostile to Communism and that all dissenters in eastern Europe had better give up their battle.

Time alone will tell which view of the Khrushchev trip will turn out to be the correct appraisal. But the Soviets thus far have given not the slightest indication of any concessions or changes, nor have they exhibited any evidence that they will not break agreements again.

The President himself is under no illusions. He knows that Khrushchev is bent on world conquest. But Mr. Eisenhower is betting on the inevitable restraints that peoples themselves can exercise when their leaders go too far.

He is hoping his own visit to the Soviet Union will furnish another opportunity, like that accorded Vice President Nixon, to convey certain truths to the Soviet citizens.

IT'S A GAMBLE, and the comment is often heard that the advantages of a visit by Khrushchev outweight the disadvantages and that no harm can be done by trying to "educate" him.

This, however, ignores the effect on the peoples of the captive nations of eastern Europe who yearn for freedom and who have hoped in vain that the leadership of the West will do nothing to enhance the prestige of their opressors.

It is not a happy augury for the peoples inside East Germany and Hungary and Poland, where the fighters for freedom took a chance just a few years ago and made a heroic effort to secure their liberty.

But within a few months the Soviet game will have been exposed. The Soviet Premier will have been to America and will have discovered that Americans are not afraid to make sacrifices when challenged on a basic principle of human liberty.

If he miscalculates in the future, as he has in the past, there certainly will be less demand for summit conferences thereafter for a long, long time and there may even be pressure for the cutting down of trade and further exchanges with the Soviet Union.

Hitler misconstrued Chamberlain's mission to Munich in 1938 as a sign of weakness. It is to be hoped that Khrushchev will not thus misconstrue Mr. Eisenhower's concessions currently being made in a spirit of good will and accommodation.

It must be admitted that the Soviet leader now has been given his way. He goes to a summit meeting with the President of the United States without having acceded to the Western demand that he withdraw his ultimatum on Berlin.

Letter To The Editor

In the past few months, many letters have been written to the editor of the Review. It is unfortunate that a large percentage of these criticized our city, the administration, etc. What most of these writers overlook is the fact that a city is just as good or bad as the inhabitants make it.

Important to the growth of any city is a cultural program, one phase of which enables music lovers to hear the finest artists in local surroundings. Civic Music is such a program.

Through Civic Music East Liverpool has heard such outstanding artists as Jerome Hines, Jan Peerce, Blanche Tehbom, Rise Stevens, Marian Anderson, Pittsburgh Symphonette and many, many others - vocalists and instrumentalits.

This year on the Civic Music program will appear the Roger Wagner Chorale and two other concerts selected by workers after carefully checking ballots sent in by Civic Music ticket purchasers.

The Roger Wagner Chorale was the only singing ensemble invited to appear at the coronation ceremonies for Queen Elizabeth. They have been acclaimed the top-ranking choir of the past decade. We, in East Liverpool, will have the opportunity of hearing this outstanding organization in the beautiful and accoustically perfect Westgate Auditorium.

Although the week of Sept. 21 has been set aside for the Civic Music drive, orders are now being accepted. We urge every lover of good music to support this program and move East Liverpool up one more rung on the ladder of community development.

EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW

A Dependable Newspaper Serving the Tri-State District

The Stamps Tell A Story

The report on federal gambling stamps offers a fairly accurate insight into law enforcement in counties of immediate interest to residents of the tri-state district.

According to records of the Cleveland office of the Internal Revenue Service, only one such stamp has been issued in Columbiana County since July 1 for the present fiscal year compared with 13 each in nearby Jefferson and Belmont counties.

And in neighboring Hancock County, the Revenue Department at Parkersburg, W. Va., reported 57 stamps obtained.

For the first time in years no stamp was listed for East Liverpool.

The above figures do not necessarily mean that there is no gambling going on in East Liverpool or that there is only one spot in Columbiana County where it flourishes. That could be the case or it could not be the case. But it does stand to reason that gambling activities are at a minimum in the city and throughout the rest of the county.

And most of the credit must go to proper policing by the authorities. If the will to close up illegal spots is there, there generally is a way—although it some times takes much longer than desired.

On the whole, authorities in East Liverpool and other Columbiana County communities have given every indication that they feel gambling must go. The stamp report reflects their efforts in that direction.

In contrast, both Jefferson and Belmont counties have been fairly wide open over the years despite many conscientious efforts to have them otherwise. The big problem has been to get key law enforcement agencies and others to cooperate to the extent necessary with those favoring a cleanup.

The Hancock County situation is widely known.

From the governor on down there has been little to indicate that anyone in the proper places intends to do anything to correct the situation. The result—a rush to the gambling stamp windows.

It makes sense that there will be far less gambling in areas where enforcement authorities are doing a conscientious job than in those where they are lax.

The stamp report tells the story well.

Vice President Nixon's Early Foot

It is no secret now that Vice President Nixon on his Russian visit has brought off the slickest stroke of political business since he turned disaster into triumph with his vow-of-integrity speech in the 1952 campaign.

This is apart from, though not entirely separate from, his high-level diplomatic mission. To the extent that he has improved his attractiveness as a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination by the way he has handled himself in Russia, he may have improved the prospects of more harmonious relations with the Soviet Union.

Premier Khrushchev and his advisers are just as aware as anyone else accustomed to testing the direction of the political wind that they may have been hobnobbing with the next president of the United States at the same time they were entertaining the current vice president.

A citizen-voter cannot help but remember how New Deal Democrats used to make political capital of Franklin Roosevelt's ability to get along with men like Stalin and Churchill on easy terms and that one of Dwight Eisenhower's selling points when he was being sold to the country in 1952 was his familiarity with Very Important Personages abroad.

MR. NIXON has the early foot in this respect in the 1960 race. More than any other American who has had the benefit of the Moscow dateline, he has made the impression of talking as much as he listened; he has been a positive advocate. And as the half hundred reporters who are with him are pointing out in amazement, he is as irrepressible a campaigner on his Russian tour as he is at home.

It is as though he had been given a chance to warm up for the big game ahead by practicing in another contest. One correspondent, James Reston of The New York Times, calls it the "first innovation in American politics since the women's vote." Reston suggests Mr. Nixon has not been so happy since the resignation of Harold Stassen.

Everything a politician does has bearing on his standing as a politician; that is obvious. The trick is to make it have favorable bearng.

Mr. Nixon's forthright behavior under trying circumstances in a country whose leaders are plainly in a mood to achieve a working basis of economic harmony with the United States, if they can do it without losing any of their ideological identity, has helped him as a politician.

EVEN MORE than that, it has helped the Republican party's prospects for 1960. It is certain that the party's presidential nominee, whether he is Richard Nixon or someone else, will have to come up and exceed the very favorable image of Richard Nixon that has been brought to a new degree of attractiveness by his Russian visit.

There is beginning to be a new kind of talk in U.S. political circles. It is remindful of a new kind of talk being heard in the American League.

Circumstances alter cases; that is the new theme. The New York Yankees were walkaway favorites in the American League until circumstances altered cases. The Democrats were favored to win both houses of Congress and go into the presidential contest with an edge in the polls until Mr. Nixon staged his warmup campaign in Russia. A new circumstance has come into existence.

First-Class Idea In The Making

The Eisenhower administration did not even go through the motions of predicting disaster last week when the House of Representatives lopped off more than a third of a billion from a foreign aid total that already had been bobtailed by another third of a billion.

The effort would have been wasted anyway, because it now is too well known that every foreign-aid proposal for some 15 years has been pruned with no visible adverse effect on the administration's program. There is evidence that if there had been more pruning the program would have fared better because it has suffered from an excess of funds. That is, there always has been more money available than its distributors could use to good advantage, and this has tempted them to authorize much spending that has hurt as much as it has helped its intended beneficiaries.

A first-class idea is in the making among Americans who wonder about the more than 80 billion dollars' worth of foreign aid paid out since the end of World War II and the more than three billion that will follow it in the current budget.

It is the idea that even a good thing must stop eventually lest it turn into a bad thing and that the time now is at hand to set a terminal date for foreign aid.

This would not be difficult. If the date were to be set for the end of this session of Congress, for example, it would be many years before all unexpended balances could be used up.

Furthermore, if there could be a clear division between credit advanced to credit-poor countries with prospects of repying long-term loans and all forms of aid that promise no return at all, the former could be continued indefinitely and the latter could be brought to quick termination. It is the objectionable part.

U.S. taxpayers have been patient. They have been generous. They even have been tolerant and understanding. They have realized, for example, that foreign aid was a defense bargain in some instances. But they always have realized another thing that still seems not to be realized by foreign-aid advocates—that even a good thing has to stop sometime.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The big man on the committee trying to find the causes of the shocking brutalities, exceeding the tactics of primitive savage in streets, parks and schoolyards, dropped into our house. "Where do our young people and adults get such frightful ideas of decent behavior?" he demanded. (The TV wrestling show was on and at this point one wrestler kicked the other in the stomach, knocked him down, jumped on him and stuck his thumb in his eye, while the referee lit cigarette and waved to children watching the telecast.)

"Our committee is going all-out in an effort to explain the shocking assaults all over the land," admitted the caller sadly. "It's a very difficult problem." (Now the fallen grappler freed himself by chewing of his opponent's middle finger. He slammed him, into a corner and slugged him again and again despite the fact the opponent's hands were at his side.

THE REFEREE was asking a motherly spectator not to get bored, as the show would get exciting later on.)

"Daily we read of kids cruelly beating up other kids in defiance of every code of human decency," our distressed friend went on. "What is influencing them?" (Here one wrestler threw the other over the ropes out of the ring, chased him around the arena and floored him with a sportswriter's table. Women and children in the ringside audience cheered wildly.)

"I think our fight against this barbaric, ghoulish brutality needs a new slogan, a presidential proclamation and, of course, a slam at parents," said our friend. (Now one wrestler pinned the other to the floor whereupon a friend leaped into the ring and beat the fallen man into insensibility with a wooden chair, while the referee posed for a TV closeup registering unconcern.)

"Know what I think," asked our friend, who didn't seem to be paying any attention to the show.

"No," we said, "but you and your committee had better start noticeing the glorification of foul plays by pro wrestling on family TV sets. And you might ask TV biggies about their codes of good conduct."

HAWAIIAN ELECTION was decided by a "straw vote," obviously. And we heard of a voter who was late to the polls because his surfboard broke down.

Roger Blough, U.S. Steel chief, started out to be a small-town schoolteacher, then decided to study for the ministry and finally switched to law. As a young attorney he attracted attention of the steel company head, who hired him as a company counsel.

Jim Farley is reported favored by Gov. Rockefeller as a member of trotting track commission. Jim was once a boxing czar, and there is more "boxing" in one trotting race than in a month's Garden fights.

They Say Incomes Are At An All-Time High

'Stay Out Of Our Affairs, Please'

By Victor Riesel

NARO, KENYA

They've been fighting here with bows and arrows and spears. Now all is quiet. Around me are the Masai tribesmen. I've been sharing their flies — by the hundreds. I've been at their round huts—made of hardened cow dung, which they also use as a poultice for wounds. I've handled their iron spears.

Victor Riesel

I've tried to tell them about America. They never heard of it. The old men, carrying the fly chasers as a sign of influence, won't believe there is such a place.

They asked about my eyes. I told them. They rattled their spears. They called me a warrior. They said proudly they are warriors too and the men in their manyatta (family group) led all the rest with 16 lion kills. How many have I killed? I retreated from that one—my face as red as the ocher dye made their hair and their skin.

At high noon it was 130 degrees in the sun. There were no mad dogs about but back in Nairobi there were angry Englishmen and bitter Kenyans. They believe that the United States in general and American labor leaders in particular are unfairly interfering in their affairs and their politics.

THEY HAD SUGGESTED this drive out towards the Ngong Hills, the Magadi Lake and this area, all within 60 to 80 miles from the metropolitan city of Nairobi. They had suggested I stay with the tribal Africans for a while.

The nearest were the Masai warriors who have rejected civilization's virtues just down the road on this strange continent. And the highest British and Kenyan officials said I would discover why they don't believe concepts of Western democracy can fit onto this continent.

I was startled to hear the AFL-CIO leadership discussed by the Kenyan equivalent of the president of the United States and by lesser ministerial officers. They wanted to know why the AFL-CIO was pouring tens of thousands of dollars into the Kenya labor movement made up totally of Africans.

Then, after Premier Khrushchev has visited America, Mr. Eisenhower will pay a return visit to the Soviet Union.

Two points of view prevail today about the exchange of visits between the Soviet Dictator and the American President. One is that tension will be eased and the cold war will thaw out a bit. The other view is that Khrushchev will tighten his hold on the Soviet people and will tell them that America now accepts the leaders of Communism as equals.

With a controlled press, this will mean misleading propaganda inside the Soviet Union and within the countries occupied by Soviet Troops.

The impression will be cultivated that the United States no longer is hostile to Communism and that all dissenters in eastern Europe had better give up their battle.

Time alone will tell which view of the Khrushchev trip will turn out to be the correct appraisal. But the Soviets thus far have given not the slightest indication of any concessions or changes, nor have they exhibited any evidence that they will not break agreements again.

The President himself is under no illusions. He knows that Khrushchev is bent on world conquest. But Mr. Eisenhower is betting on the inevitable restraints that peoples themselves can exercise when their leaders go too far.

He is hoping his own visit to the Soviet Union will furnish another opportunity, like that accorded Vice President Nixon, to convey certain truths to the Soviet citizens.

IT'S A GAMBLE, and the comment is often heard that the advantages of a visit by Khrushchev outweight the disadvantages and that no harm can be done by trying to "educate" him.

This, however, ignores the effect on the peoples of the captive nations of eastern Europe who yearn for freedom and who have hoped in vain that the leadership of the West will do nothing to enhance the prestige of their opressors.

It is not a happy augury for the peoples inside East Germany and Hungary and Poland, where the fighters for freedom took a chance just a few years ago and made a heroic effort to secure their liberty.

But within a few months the Soviet game will have been exposed. The Soviet Premier will have been to America and will have discovered that Americans are not afraid to make sacrifices when challenged on a basic principle of human liberty.

If he miscalculates in the future, as he has in the past, there certainly will be less demand for summit conferences thereafter for a long, long time and there may even be pressure for the cutting down of trade and further exchanges with the Soviet Union.

Hitler misconstrued Chamberlain's mission to Munich in 1938 as a sign of weakness. It is to be hoped that Khrushchev will not thus misconstrue Mr. Eisenhower's concessions currently being made in a spirit of good will and accommodation.

It must be admitted that the Soviet leader now has been given his way. He goes to a summit meeting with the President of the United States without having acceded to the Western demand that he withdraw his ultimatum on Berlin.

Letter To The Editor

In the past few months, many letters have been written to the editor of the Review. It is unfortunate that a large percentage of these criticized our city, the administration, etc. What most of these writers overlook is the fact that a city is just as good or bad as the inhabitants make it.

Important to the growth of any city is a cultural program, one phase of which enables music lovers to hear the finest artists in local surroundings. Civic Music is such a program.

Through Civic Music East Liverpool has heard such outstanding artists as Jerome Hines, Jan Peerce, Blanche Tehbom, Rise Stevens, Marian Anderson, Pittsburgh Symphonette and many, many others - vocalists and instrumentalits.

This year on the Civic Music program will appear the Roger Wagner Chorale and two other concerts selected by workers after carefully checking ballots sent in by Civic Music ticket purchasers.

The Roger Wagner Chorale was the only singing ensemble invited to appear at the coronation ceremonies for Queen Elizabeth. They have been acclaimed the top-ranking choir of the past decade. We, in East Liverpool, will have the opportunity of hearing this outstanding organization in the beautiful and accoustically perfect Westgate Auditorium.

Although the week of Sept. 21 has been set aside for the Civic Music drive, orders are now being accepted. We urge every lover of good music to support this program and move East Liverpool up one more rung on the ladder of community development.

ERNEST A. LOWE
President
Civic Music Assn.

Two Recaptured After Pen Break

CRANSTON, R. I. (AP)—Two vicious felons who escaped state prison here last Friday are back in confinement today facing additional charges.

Rape-murderer Edward J. Andrews, 25, serving life, and Gennaro D'Amico, 39, under 20 years sentence for attempting to kill a policeman, were captured Tuesday in nearby Scituate. As police approached, they tried to escape by crawling through high grass. Neither was armed.

A third participant in the break, Robert Hashberger, 19, was captured Monday, also in Scituate. He was in the prison for mental observation after transfer from an institution for juveniles.

All three are scheduled for arraignment Thursday on charges of abducting a guard, larceny of his automobile, assault with a dangerous weapon and escape.

The capture ended a manhunt which had spread to neighboring Connecticut and Massachusetts and involved several hundred men, four bloodhounds and a helicopter.

State police had ended their massive search, believing the men had slipped through their lines, when a Scituate resident reported theft of two jars of home-made preserves and some tomatoes. Officers hurried to the scene and the tip quickly paid off.

A foreign sports car was damaged slightly in a collision Tuesday night on E. 5th St. when a youth said he did not see the auto as he backed to allow another motorist to enter a parking space.

Bruce Campbell, 18, of 1039 Vine St. told police he was heading west in a 1955 sedan when a motorist ahead stopped to back into a parking space. The 1959 foreign car owned by Thomas S. Goyak, 36, of 325 Broadway stopped behind Campbell.

Campbell told officers he started to back to allow the other motorist to enter the parking spot and struck Goyak's car which he didn't see, damaging the front bumper and grille. There was no damage to the Campbell car owned by Campbell Used Car Sales of Pennsylvania Ave.

Health Department Funds Dip Despite Higher Tax Duplicate

LISBON — The appropriation for the County Health Department is considerably less than it received in 1952 although the county tax duplicate has almost doubled during the period, according to Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner.

The department received $25,000 in tax funds this year, which is the major part of its revenue, the remainder consisting of inspection and permit fees and relatively small federal and state subsidies.

The department is a governmental agency which operates under the authority of the laws of the state of Ohio, Dr. Palmer said, and its function is to enforce state laws and local regulations adopted by the Board of Health designed to prevent disease and to prolong life.

Its activities branch into many field, including supervision of restaurants, sewage, plumbing installations, trailer parks, inspection of schools, rest homes, public institutions, garbage disposal, private and public water supply, investigation of public nuisances and many other areas of sanitation.

It is also active in the control of communicable diseases, tuberculosis and handles school health including immunization of school children. It supplies medication for rheumatic heart patients. In case of an epidemic, it is the only agency authorized by law to take control measures, and may at any time call upon state consultants in this or any other field, Dr. Palmer said.

In 1958, the health department operated under an emergency budget which was reduced in 1959 to the extent that it had to accept the resignation of one nurse and lay off an inspector, leaving the department with but one sanitarian, a nurse and a plumbing inspector.

This understaffing meant that some of its services had to be curtailed. In spite of this handicap it is making every effort to give the public as much health protection as possible, the Columbiana County Health and Safety Council pointed out.

The demands on the department for sanitary investigations and other services are increasing daily. Additional public financial support is essential to provide the personnel necessary to meet increasingly heavy demands of the department, to enable it to give more prompt and effective service in the fields of investigation, inspections, follow-ups, nursing and enforcement, and to restore the services it was forced to temporarily curtail or discontinue because of lack of funds.

Beer Revenue $3,689,454 In West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — Beer Commissioner R. D. Platt reported today total collections by his agency of $3,639,454 for the fiscal year ended June 30.

The total included $480,174 from license fees; $19,000 from bond forfeitures resulting from license revocations, and $3,190,280 from the state barrel tax of $5.50 per 31 gallons.

Approximately half of the barrel tax receipts, or $1,595,140, went to the veterans' bonus account in the state treasury.

Net deposits to the general revenue fund, including income from revocations, license fees and the barrel tax, totaled $2,091,194.

Platt said that his field force of 14 men traveled 276,666 miles during the past year in making 5,834 routine investigations, checking on 830 complaints and investigating 931 cases involving such matters as new license applications and request for license transfers.

The beer commissioner in effect returned to the state treasury at the end of the fiscal year $7,431 still unexpended from a total appropriation of $123,950.

Ground Donated To Legion Post For Vets Graves

The donation of a plot of ground at Locust Hill Cemetery to Chester American Legion Post 121 for veterans' graves was unanimously approved at the annual lot owners meeting Tuesday night at Kell's Tin Shop of the Chester-Newell Rd.

The 70-by-103-foot plot adjoins the present Legion Memorial plot, and will be used for beautifying the area and for interment of deceased veterans of all wars. It cannot be sold or transferred by the post.

All officers of the association were returned. They are Albert Kell, president of the lot owners; Thomas Cunningham, vice president; A. Earl Wilson, secretary-treasurer; Harry Abrams, president of the Board of Directors and Wilson, secretary-treasurer of the directors. Kell was also re-elected director for a seven-year term.

Charles F. Pugh was reappointed caretaker, and his salary increased from $2,800 to $3,000. The next annual meeting will be Aug. 1, 1960.

Fifty adults and children attended the family wiener roast of the Ohio Township volunteer fire department and auxiliary held Saturday night on the fire hall grounds.

Mrs. Minnie Reed, Mrs. Earl Carrol and Mrs. Richard Rice were in charge. Mrs. Rice directed games for children and adults. Prizes were awarded Bob Carrol and Kap Rice.

The auxiliary will meet Aug. 13 and the department Aug. 10 in the fire hall.

95 Will Attend Camp For Band

About 95 Chester High School band members and camp aides are expected to attend the annual band camp Sunday through Aug. 14, according to plans made at a meeting of the Purple and Gold Band Mothers Monday night at the high school.

John Clovis, band director, will be in charge of the camp to be held at the Toronto Band Fathers Camp near Toronto in Jefferson County.

Counselors will include George Clovis, Karl Walker, Ralph Jarvis, Sue Linger, Judy Johnson, Cheryl Schleiter and Lorena McMath. Mrs. Robert Burch will be kitchen chairman, assisted by Mrs. Roy Haught, Mrs. Bernard Reber, Mrs. Forrest McDonald and Mrs. Alton Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson reported $65 netted from a dart stand at the Chester firemen's fair last week. Clovis reported 15 new uniforms have been ordered at a cost of $1,305, and are to be shipped Aug. 21.

Tentative plans were made to sponsor a refreshment stand at the first three home football games. Mrs. Johnson, president, was in charge.

Health Department Funds Dip Despite Higher Tax Duplicate

LISBON — The appropriation for the County Health Department is considerably less than it received in 1952 although the county tax duplicate has almost doubled during the period, according to Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner.

The department received $25,000 in tax funds this year, which is the major part of its revenue, the remainder consisting of inspection and permit fees and relatively small federal and state subsidies.

The department is a governmental agency which operates under the authority of the laws of the state of Ohio, Dr. Palmer said, and its function is to enforce state laws and local regulations adopted by the Board of Health designed to prevent disease and to prolong life.

Its activities branch into many field, including supervision of restaurants, sewage, plumbing installations, trailer parks, inspection of schools, rest homes, public institutions, garbage disposal, private and public water supply, investigation of public nuisances and many other areas of sanitation.

It is also active in the control of communicable diseases, tuberculosis and handles school health including immunization of school children. It supplies medication for rheumatic heart patients. In case of an epidemic, it is the only agency authorized by law to take control measures, and may at any time call upon state consultants in this or any other field, Dr. Palmer said.

In 1958, the health department operated under an emergency budget which was reduced in 1959 to the extent that it had to accept the resignation of one nurse and lay off an inspector, leaving the department with but one sanitarian, a nurse and a plumbing inspector.

This understaffing meant that some of its services had to be curtailed. In spite of this handicap it is making every effort to give the public as much health protection as possible, the Columbiana County Health and Safety Council pointed out.

The demands on the department for sanitary investigations and other services are increasing daily. Additional public financial support is essential to provide the personnel necessary to meet increasingly heavy demands of the department, to enable it to give more prompt and effective service in the fields of investigation, inspections, follow-ups, nursing and enforcement, and to restore the services it was forced to temporarily curtail or discontinue because of lack of funds.

Beer Revenue $3,689,454 In West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — Beer Commissioner R. D. Platt reported today total collections by his agency of $3,639,454 for the fiscal year ended June 30.

The total included $480,174 from license fees; $19,000 from bond forfeitures resulting from license revocations, and $3,190,280 from the state barrel tax of $5.50 per 31 gallons.

Approximately half of the barrel tax receipts, or $1,595,140, went to the veterans' bonus account in the state treasury.

Net deposits to the general revenue fund, including income from revocations, license fees and the barrel tax, totaled $2,091,194.

Platt said that his field force of 14 men traveled 276,666 miles during the past year in making 5,834 routine investigations, checking on 830 complaints and investigating 931 cases involving such matters as new license applications and request for license transfers.

The beer commissioner in effect returned to the state treasury at the end of the fiscal year $7,431 still unexpended from a total appropriation of $123,950.

Arnold W. Devon To Retire After Selling Drugstore

One of the city's oldest pharmacists in point of service said today he plans to retire as soon as his business can be sold.

Arnold W. Devon, former mayor and Columbiana County coroner, forced by ill health to quit, has been in the pharmacy business since July 1908, when he went to work for Jesse Holloway as a lad of 13.

He later was employed by John Carnahan and then entered the Army during World War I.

Returning from service, he went back to work at Carnahan's and then worked for Charles Larkins, Clarence G. Anderson and Frank Huff in Chester, all deceased.

After passing his state pharmacy examination in 1932, Devon went to work for the late Ralph C. Benedum, who had purchased a store in the East End in 1927.

When Mr. Benedum sold the store in 1938, Devon remained to aid the new owner, the late William N. Vodrey, until he was elected to a two-year term as mayor, serving from 1944 to 1946.

The former mayor worked temporarily at Rand's and then opened his present store on Mulberry St. in March, 1946.

Devon has suffered from a heart ailment for about 17 hears.

Arnold W. Devon To Retire After Selling Drugstore

One of the city's oldest pharmacists in point of service said today he plans to retire as soon as his business can be sold.

Arnold W. Devon, former mayor and Columbiana County coroner, forced by ill health to quit, has been in the pharmacy business since July 1908, when he went to work for Jesse Holloway as a lad of 13.

He later was employed by John Carnahan and then entered the Army during World War I.

Returning from service, he went back to work at Carnahan's and then worked for Charles Larkins, Clarence G. Anderson and Frank Huff in Chester, all deceased.

After passing his state pharmacy examination in 1932, Devon went to work for the late Ralph C. Benedum, who had purchased a store in the East End in 1927.

When Mr. Benedum sold the store in 1933, Devon remained to aid the new owner, the late William N. Vodrey, until he was elected to a two-year term as mayor, serving from 1944 to 1946.

The former mayor worked temporarily at Rand's and then opened his present store on Mulberry St. in March, 1946.

Devon has suffered from a heart ailment for about 17 hears.

Go slow on onion and use parsley with a lavish hand if you want well-flavored but delicate soup stock.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our neighbors have two sons 11 and 12 years of age. Their parents caught them smoking so they gave them permission to smoke plus several packages of cigarettes. They said, "If the boys want to smoke we'd rather they do it front of us than behind our backs."

They also reasoned that the kids probably would tire of smoking and quit of their own accord.

Well, they aren't getting tired and they aren't quitting. It's disgusting to see these two smart alecks puffing away on the street. And it's creating problems with our own children. They think they should be allowed to smoke, too. Our son who is 10 doesn't understand why he can't get the same deal.

Please give us some help. — DISGUSTED PARENTS.

Dear Disgusted Parents: These people have cornflakes where their brains belong. If their sons wanted to drink wood alcohol and carry a gun would they give them permission to do it "in front of them rather than behind their backs"?

When parents don't know how (or haven't the courage) to say no to their children they are abdicating their responsibilities. These dunderheads should have laid down the law, stated the reasons, then seen to it that the kids obeyed.

Tell your 10-year-old that he can't smoke because it's not good for him and to quit nagging because the subject is closed for the next eight years.

Problem Parents

Dear Ann: My wife is the only girl in a family of six brothers. Her parents are in their 70s and in poor health. They have a big house and can't keep help because they're hard to please.

My wife's brothers say since she's the only girl it's her duty to move her family into the folks' house and care for them — or take the old folks into her home.

Taking them into our home is out. My wife is not a strong woman and she'd kill herself trying to take care of them. None of the brothers wants the parents in his home because they all say it's a daughter's duty, not a daughter-in-law's.

What should be done? — S.O.S.

Dear S.O.S.: According to the law in most states it's the children's obligation to care for aged parents. This means BOTH sons and daughters. I suggest a seven-member family pow-wow. Either find a housekeeper and — or a practical nurse who will care for the old folks for a top salary or move them to a nursing home where they can get the care they need. All expenses should be split seven ways.

Last Resort

Dear Ann: Our daughter is 19 and a sweet girl. She's been going with a boy 10 months and no one can figure it out. He has no manners, dresses like a beatnik and can't even say "Good evening." He says "Howdy." He treats her like dirt and if she's not dressed and ready he leaves and slams the door.

She wants to get married next month and it's breaking my heart. She has a wonderful job and he works when he feels like it. The girl makes her own clothes to save money to buy things for him.

They are as different as day and night. I hate to think of her throwing her life away on a no-account like this. What can I do to save her? — DAY AND NIGHT.

Dear D. and N.: Probably nothing — and it's a crying shame.

Some people have to get their lumps the hard way and your daughter is one of these unfortunates. Say one more thing as a last shot — ask her to talk to your clergyman.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

1 Missing, 7 Safe In Ocean Ditching Of Tanker Plane

LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, Va. (AP)—Air Force authorities today pushed an investigation of the ditching of a big tanker plane in the Atlantic 200 miles east of Bermuda. One crewman was missing, and an intensive air-sea search was under way for him.

Seven others were rescued when the six-engined craft plopped into the ocean Tuesday near the Panamanian tanker Imperial St. Lawrence.

The Coast Guard cutter Mendota and the St. Lawrence headed toward a mid-Atlantic rendezvous today when the rescued men would be transferred. Their condition was not known.

The missing crewman was identified as Airman 2.C. Thomas M. Payton of nearby Hampton, Va., a refueling operator.

The unloaded KB50 was en route back to Langley from the Azores via Bermuda on a routine crew transfer, Air Force authorities said. It was attached to the 427th Air Refueling Squadron here.

Short Causes Blaze Damaging Car Interior

IRONDALE — Fire believed caused by a short circuit damaged the interior of a 1955 model Lincoln sedan owned by Lee Utt of Salt Run Rd. early today.

Chief Oliver Nicholson said the fire destroyed the entire interior, burning upholstery, wiring and accessories. A short was blamed because the car's horn began sounding when the fire started, awakening Harold Gill, a neighbor who called firemen.

The auto was parked outdoors at the entrance of a garage when the fire broke out at 3:15 a. m.

The fire chief said Utt is presently in Parkersburg, W. Va. Twelve firemen reponded to the alarm. Two trucks made the run one was returned to the station.

Celebrezze Feels Premier Should Bypass Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze is assuming that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will visit Cleveland at the invitation of Cyrus Eaton, and the mayor doesn't like the idea.

"It's not a good idea to invite him (Khrushchev) here because, especially in Cleveland, there are too many wounds carried by too many people who, directly or indirectly, are personnally involved with events in Poland, Hungary and the other satellites," the mayor said.

"The danger is that this might set off a spark, and something could happen," Celebrezze continued.

The mayor told a news conference Tuesday he would not make any effort to meet Khrushchev if the premier accepts the invitation from Eaton. The millionaire industrialist visited Khrushchev in Moscow last year and the Soviet leader sent him a gift of a troika and three white horses to pull it.

Celebrezze pointed out that when First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan was in Cleveland as Eaton's guest, the mayor did not meet him.

"The only way I would get to see him," the mayor said of Khrushchev, "would be if he should come to my office. It's protocol for foreign visitors to stop at City Hall."

Policies Given Okay

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state's Insurance Department has given its okay to $1,000 deductible insurance policies—with rate reductions up to 40 per cent—on such institutional property as schools, museums, hospitals and churches and their contents. In giving his approval Tuesday, Supt. Edward A. Stowell said the institutional property program is an independent rate filing by the Insurance Co. of North America.

County Court Disposes Of 200 Cases In July

LISBON — Columbiana County Common Pleas Court disposed of over 200 cases during July, according to a report by the clerk of courts office to the administrative assistant to the state supreme court.

The two divisions had 929 cases pending July 1, with 79 more being filed during the month, making a total of 1,008 cases. During the month they disposed of 284 cases, leaving 724 as of Aug. 1.

A breakdown of disposition shows 139 cases were tried by the court, 21 were cognovit and default judgments and 124 were settled and dismissed. Of the total dismissed, there were 58 divorce cases, 222 civil cases and criminal cases.

1 Missing, 7 Safe In Ocean Ditching Of Tanker Plane

LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, Va. (AP)—Air Force authorities today pushed an investigation of the ditching of a big tanker plane in the Atlantic 200 miles east of Bermuda. One crewman was missing, and an intensive air-sea search was under way for him.

Seven others were rescued when the six-engined craft plopped into the ocean Tuesday near the Panamanian tanker Imperial St. Lawrence.

The Coast Guard cutter Mendota and the St. Lawrence headed toward a mid-Atlantic rendezvous today when the rescued men would be transferred. Their condition was not known.

The missing crewman was identified as Airman 2.C. Thomas M. Payton of nearby Hampton, Va., a refueling operator.

The unloaded KB50 was en route back to Langley from the Azores via Bermuda on a routine crew transfer, Air Force authorities said. It was attached to the 427th Air Refueling Squadron here.

Short Causes Blaze Damaging Car Interior

IRONDALE — Fire believed caused by a short circuit damaged the interior of a 1955 model Lincoln sedan owned by Lee Utt of Salt Run Rd. early today.

Chief Oliver Nicholson said the fire destroyed the entire interior, burning upholstery, wiring and accessories. A short was blamed because the car's horn began sounding when the fire started, awakening Harold Gill, a neighbor who called firemen.

The auto was parked outdoors at the entrance of a garage when the fire broke out at 3:15 a. m.

The fire chief said Utt is presently in Parkersburg, W. Va. Twelve firemen reponded to the alarm. Two trucks made the run one was returned to the station.

LISBON — Carl L. Stacey, clerk of courts, reported a total of $5,920.67 ($4,451.88) was paid the county treasurer in fees collected in Common Pleas Court and the Car Title Department during July, giving July 1958 figures—in parenthesis—for comparison.

There were 75 (86) civil cases filed in Common Pleas Court and the Title department issued 3,669 (2,990) auto titles, 48 (34) duplicate titles, 907 (659) memorandums, (4) duplicate memorandums, 1,519 (1,276) notations of liens, 1,165 (1,215) cancellation of liens and 957 (927) acknowledgements.

Celebrezze Feels Premier Should Bypass Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze is assuming that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will visit Cleveland at the invitation of Cyrus Eaton, and the mayor doesn't like the idea.

"It's not a good idea to invite him (Khrushchev) here because, especially in Cleveland, there are too many wounds carried by too many people who, directly or indirectly, are personnally involved with events in Poland, Hungary and the other satellites," the mayor said.

"The danger is that this might set off a spark, and something could happen," Celebrezze continued.

The mayor told a news conference Tuesday he would not make any effort to meet Khrushchev if the premier accepts the invitation from Eaton. The millionaire industrialist visited Khrushchev in Moscow last year and the Soviet leader sent him a gift of a troika and three white horses to pull it.

Celebrezze pointed out that when First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan was in Cleveland as Eaton's guest, the mayor did not meet him.

"The only way I would get to see him," the mayor said of Khrushchev, "would be if he should come to my office. It's protocol for foreign visitors to stop at City Hall."

Policies Given Okay

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state's Insurance Department has given its okay to $1,000 deductible insurance policies—with rate reductions up to 40 per cent—on such institutional property as schools, museums, hospitals and churches and their contents. In giving his approval Tuesday, Supt. Edward A. Stowell said the institutional property program is an independent rate filing by the Insurance Co. of North America.

County Court Disposes Of 200 Cases In July

LISBON — Columbiana County Common Pleas Court disposed of over 200 cases during July, according to a report by the clerk of courts office to the administrative assistant to the state supreme court.

The two divisions had 929 cases pending July 1, with 79 more being filed during the month, making a total of 1,008 cases. During the month they disposed of 284 cases, leaving 724 as of Aug. 1.

A breakdown of disposition shows 139 cases were tried by the court, 21 were cognovit and default judgments and 124 were settled and dismissed. Of the total dismissed, there were 58 divorce cases, 222 civil cases and criminal cases.

Hancock Sets School Funds At $2,407,526

The sum of $2,407,526.31 for operating the Hancock County school system was approved in the 1959-60 budget by the Board of Education Tuesday night in New Cumberland.

The budget shows an increase over last year's in the amount of $367,760.46. It provides funds for the salaries of school administrators, teaching personnel, repairs of plant and replacements and other provisions.

The board expects to raise $1,607,528 in revenue from special tax rates on property valuations. The assessed property valuation is $104,813,873, a decrease from last year of about $10 million.

The remainder of the budget funds will be derived from the following sources:

State aid, regular, $501,707; state aid, homebound children, $200; vocational aid, $10,000; sheriff's tax sales and redemptions, $5,000; tuition, $25,000; miscellaneous receipts, $15,000; federal aid for school lunches, $10,000; state aid, superintendent's salary, $1,432.60, federal aid, National Defense Education Act, $30,000; and sheriff's balance at the beginning of the year, $201,658.71.

Estimated expenditures will include: General control, $57,979.04; instruction, $1,712,114.82; operation of plant, $151,100; repairs and replacements, $198,700; transportation, $88,575; auxiliary agencies, $19,175; current fixed charges, $63,305; current obligations, $33,112.85, and capital outlay, $83,464.60.

Among the general control expenditures will be $9,432.60 for salary of Robert H. Hall, superintendent of schools; $8,460 for Robert Lindsey, assistant superintendent; $3,690 for the attendance officer; and $16,125 for clerical assistants.

The teaching staff will receive a total of $1,421,610 of the amount set for instruction purposes. The superintendent of repairs will receive $6,500. The sum of $82,500 has been earmarked for building purposes.

Salary of Mrs. Albert Logston, school nurse was set at $3,375, the same as the former school nurse received. The salary of Miss Helen Petrakis, 4-H club agent, was upped from $2,799.96 to $2,900.

Tax rates on property include 22.95 cents on Class I, 45.9 cents on Class II, and 91.8 cents each on Classes III and IV. Class I property taxes will yield $19,391; Class II, $174,072; Class III, $180,125, and Class IV, $1,318,547.

While most estimated expenditures for operation of the school plant were up, one of the largest increases was in cost of instruction.

Supt. Hall pointed out that the increase of $263,000 in instruction expenditures was due to two factors: teachers now being employed for 9½ months instead of the usual 9, and the hiring of 16 additional teachers.

Teachers were hired the extra two weeks to attend a pre-school workshop Aug. 24-28 and a post-school workshop May 30-June 3.

Beginning and maximum salaries for classes of teachers, with the beginning pay listed first are: bachelor of arts, $4,130 and $5,730; second class certificates, $2,965 and $3,765; third class certificates, $2,755 and $3,335; short course, $2,500 and $2,860; first grade elementary, $2,405, and $2,765.

Teachers with master's degrees receive a beginning salary of $4,400 with a maximum of $6,000.

The overall loss in school revenue due to the cut in total assessed valuation was $18,502. Because the assessed valuation is not 50 per cent of the state tax commissioner's appraisal, the loss in state aid was $20,578.

The remainder of the budget funds will be derived from the following sources:

State aid, regular, $501,707; state aid, homebound children, $200; vocational aid, $10,000; sheriff's tax sales and redemptions, $5,000; tuition, $25,000; miscellaneous receipts, $15,000; federal aid for school lunches, $10,000; state aid, superintendent's salary, $1,432.60, federal aid, National Defense Education Act, $30,000; and sheriff's balance at the beginning of the year, $201,658.71.

Estimated expenditures will include: General control, $57,979.04; instruction, $1,712,114.82; operation of plant, $151,100; repairs and replacements, $198,700; transportation, $88,575; auxiliary agencies, $19,175; current fixed charges, $63,305; current obligations, $33,112.85, and capital outlay, $83,464.60.

Among the general control expenditures will be $9,432.60 for salary of Robert H. Hall, superintendent of schools; $8,460 for Robert Lindsey, assistant superintendent; $3,690 for the attendance officer; and $16,125 for clerical assistants.

The teaching staff will receive a total of $1,421,610 of the amount set for instruction purposes. The superintendent of repairs will receive $6,500. The sum of $82,500 has been earmarked for building purposes.

Salary of Mrs. Albert Logston, school nurse was set at $3,375, the same as the former school nurse received. The salary of Miss Helen Petrakis, 4-H club agent, was upped from $2,799.96 to $2,900.

Tax rates on property include 22.95 cents on Class I, 45.9 cents on Class II, and 91.8 cents each on Classes III and IV. Class I property taxes will yield $19,391; Class II, $174,072; Class III, $180,125, and Class IV, $1,318,547.

While most estimated expenditures for operation of the school plant were up, one of the largest increases was in cost of instruction.

Supt. Hall pointed out that the increase of $263,000 in instruction expenditures was due to two factors: teachers now being employed for 9½ months instead of the usual 9, and the hiring of 16 additional teachers.

Teachers were hired the extra two weeks to attend a pre-school workshop Aug. 24-28 and a post-school workshop May 30-June 3.

Beginning and maximum salaries for classes of teachers, with the beginning pay listed first are: bachelor of arts, $4,130 and $5,730; second class certificates, $2,965 and $3,765; third class certificates, $2,755 and $3,335; short course, $2,500 and $2,860; first grade elementary, $2,405, and $2,765.

Teachers with master's degrees receive a beginning salary of $4,400 with a maximum of $6,000.

The overall loss in school revenue due to the cut in total assessed valuation was $18,502. Because the assessed valuation is not 50 per cent of the state tax commissioner's appraisal, the loss in state aid was $20,578.

Benedum Leaves Estate Valued At 100 Million

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The bulk of the estate of Michael Late Benedum, estimated at 100 million dollars, has been left to the Claude Worthington Benedum Foundation and three nephews and a niece.

Terms of the will were disclosed as it was filed for probate Tuesday. The multi-millionaire oil wildcatter died last Thursday at the age of 90.

After a number of personal bequests to employes, the estate is divided into two trusts. Half of the estate goes to the foundation named for Benedum's only son who died at the age of 20 in 1918 while serving with the Army in World War I.

Another 25 per cent was willed to Paul G. Benedum of Pittsburgh. The remaining quarter will be divided equally among J. Claxton Benedum of San Augustine, Texas; Darwin Benedum of San Antonio; and Mrs. Clara Mashburn of Albany, N. Y.

Benedum also left his home, called Greystone, and everything in it to the foundation.

Besides listing his beneficiaries in the will, Benedum left pieces of his philosophy. He said:

"All of the elements of the earth belong to the Creator of all things and he has, as a part of the Divine Purpose, distributed them unevenly among his children.

"Wealth cannot be measured in terms of money, stocks, bonds, broad acres or by ownership of mine and mill. Those who use a material yardstick to appraise their wealth and foolishly imagine themselves to be rich are objects of pity. In their ignorance and misanthropic isolation, they suffer from shrinkage of the soul."

Benedum gave $250,000 to trustees to benefit nine members of his wife's family. His wife died in 1951.

Chris F. Weller, his personal secretary, received 2,500 shares of Plymouth Oil stock and 1,500 shares of Ohio Oil stock.

Several close employes in his office were left a sum equal to 20 per cent of the total salary they have received. This amounts to eight years' salary for employes who worked more than 40 years for him.

Each employe at his home received $150 for each year of employment. Some had worked for Benedum 30 to 40 years.

Judge Puts Heat On For New Cooling Unit

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — A municipal judge who complained that 95 or 96 degree heat "affects my disposition" won quick relief.

The Alameda County Board of Supervisors agreed Tuesday to rent a cooling system for $115 and investigate the feasibility of installing a system throughout the courthouse.

Jaycee Board Launches Plans On Fall Home Appliance Show

Plans for a "Home Show," featuring home appliances, furnishings and building materials, were outlined at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Paul Zehnder was named chairman and Clayton Aughinbaugh, vice chairman, of the ways and means committee project which is to be held late in October or early in November at a site to be determined later.

The board also approved plans for holding a second annual antique and new auto show in the spring with Arnold Headlund and Darrell Serafy as co-chairmen.

Jack Ludwig was appointed chairman of a husband and wife bowling party set for September; Keith Sevy was named chairman of a "get out the vote" program for the November election; Paul Davis was named chairman of a husband and wife Halloween party, and William Sutherland was appointed chairman of a Christmas tree sale in December.

It was reported "Welcome to East Liverpool" signs have been ordered for delivery this month, and are to be erected on primary roads entering the city along with signs of seven civic organizations, all on one holder.

Robert Hoover and George Hales were named in charge of a family picnic to be held this month. Ed Adkins, president, said the board will count tax stamps Aug. 12 at his home.

Hoover was given a vote of appreciation for his work in directing the Junior Golf Tournament.

Eleven attended the session. The next board meeting will be Sept. 8. The whole organization will meet Sept. 21.

Paper Figures Are Misleading

Could NATO Shield Hold Firm?

By BEM PRICE

FONTAINEBLEAU, France, (AP)—On paper 21 1-3 divisions constitute the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's shield for the protection of central Europe.

These divisions supposedly are near full strength, well-equipped and combat ready—425,000 men. A reporter touring Allied commands, however, finds it difficult to believe the Allies could muster more than 250,000 troops, some indifferently equipped, against an attack.

Under NATO policy this land force would meet any Soviet aggression as close to the frontiers of the 750-mile long Iron Curtain as possible and hold them there until the rest of Europe could mobilize.

In discussing NATO policy a briefing officer at Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers, Europe (SHAPE), said, "we have no offensive plans at this headquarters." In response to a question, he added, "We do have counter-offensive plans."

The job of these 21 1-3 divisions is to guard the three main invasion routes into the heart of NATO from the east — the North European plain, the Mittelgebirge Gap in central Germany and the Danube Valley in the south.

The shield force consists on paper of five U.S. divisions, four from the United Kingdom, two from France, seven from Germany, two from Belgium and one from the Netherlands, plus one-third of a Canadian division.

But paper strength does not win battles. How many of these divisions actually are ready for modern combat?

Gen. Jean-Etienne Valluy, who has been a French soldier for 42 of his 60 years, is commander in chief of the Allied forces in central Europe with headquarters at Fontainebleau.

In an interview, Gen. Valluy said that if he had to undertake a land war in Europe tomorrow there would be three divisions he could not commit immediately — one each from France, Belgium and the Netherlands.

Could the British really muster four divisions? "The British could muster three," Valluy replied.

Thus by Valluy's reckoning the shield force for central Europe now is 17 combat divisions ready for action, but that is not the whole story.

The seven German divisions exist, but four are essentially training divisions. The other three are heavily armored, highly mobile units of 9,000 to 10,000 men each.

If the German training divisions are removed from the list of the combat-fit units, Valluy's land forces are reduced to 13 1-3 divisions, but again that is not the whole story.

Gen. Valluy noted that the British and Belgian forces contain large numbers of foot soldiers. In these days of atomic battlefield weapons and mechanization, the walking soldier may be an anachronism.

Valluy was asked what he considered his major problem. "My main fear and worry is the feeling of moral disengagement some nations seem to have toward NATO."

In February 1957 Britain formally advised her allies that a strained economy was forcing her to reduce her NATO commitment in Germany from 80,000 troops to 50,000. France notified NATO of a similar intention.

All this boils down to a single hard fact: there seem to be precisely eight divisions now in the NATO shield which are full strength, well-equipped and highly trained for atomic warfare—five U.S. divisions and three German.

What does the NATO shield face?

Western military men say: there are 20 Soviet divisions in East Germany alone — 400,000 men. In addition, there are seven East German divisions, 95,000 men, 14 Polish divisions, 280,000 men and 14 Czechoslavakian divisions of 170,000 men.

In all, the Soviets have about 175 divisions, 160 of which are stationed west of the Ural Mountains. Soviet divisions range in size from 13,000 to 15,000 men. A standard U.S. division contains 14,500 men.

Intelligence reports indicate the Soviets maintain all their active divisions at somewhere between 65 and 75 per cent of wartime strength.

Edgar Guest, Famed Poet, Dies In Sleep At Age Of 78

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Edgar A. Guest, famed poet whose works were known to newspaper readers all over the world, died today in his sleep. He would have been 78 Aug. 20.

Cause of death was not determined immediately but physicians indicated the poet had suffered a cerebral hemorrhage.

At the height of his popularity, Guest was among the most widely read men of his time. His name was most frequently associated with the first lines of one of his most famous poems: "It takes a heap o' livin' in a house t' make it home."

Guest's daily poem still appeared in the Detroit Free Press and other newspapers up to the time of his death, despite his bad health.

Often called the "poet of the plain people," he preferred to be known as a newspaperman. He was a reporter, exchange editor and a columnist at the Free Press before devoting his life to poetry.

At his peak his syndicated daily poem appeared in nearly 300 American newspapers. He also produced 17 volumes of poetry and for several years appeared on a national radio program.

Guest was born in Birmingham, England, Aug. 20, 1881. He came to Detroit with his family while a boy. After attending public schools here he worked in a drug store before joining the Free Press.

While exchange editor at the Free Press he began to write poetry, often slipping it into the newspaper as an exchange item. When his secret was discovered, he was assigned to write poetry once a week. He later wrote a daily column, "Breakfast Chit - Chat."

Guest was associated with the motion picture industry for several months in 1935 as a writer and later had his own television show in New York. His son Edgar A. (Bud) Guest Jr. is widely known in the Michigan area as the philosophic master-of-ceremonies on a radio variety program.

Guest's poems extolled the everyday things of life. His last published poem appeared in today's Free Press and was entitled "The Little Mind."

The poet's wife, Ellen, died in 1945. Besides his son, Guest is survived by a daughter, Janet.

Contract Let On Roof Work

LISBON — The Lisbon Board of Education in an abbreviated session Tuesday evening awarded a contract to the Industrial Roofing & Asbestos Co. Inc., of Youngstown, low bidder at a $4,279, for a 20-year bonded roof for the high school.

Other bidders were Simon Sheet Metal Co. of Youngstown, $5,310, and Starbuck Brothers, Inc., of Salem, $7,175.

Cornel Monda, school psychologist, was authorized expenses of $15 per year to attend the American Phychological Association's meeting in Cincinnati Sept. 3-9. He requested permission to attend and estimated a cost of $8.

The board ordered the capping of 12 school bus tires at the Lisbon Tire Service at a cost of $332.-70 and a new tire will be purchased from the Hiscox Service.

Supt. Loren Early reported it appears certain that the new addition will not be finished to Lincoln School when school opens next month. At present, it is not expected to be completed before Oct. 15.

He said he has been unable to fill the biology teacher and assistant coach position created by the resignation of Ernest Costello, who took a job in Nevada. He said he hopes to obtain a teacher by the time school opens.

Only three members were present, Edwin L. Kauffman, vice president, who presided, and William Haifley and Fred Rose. The next regular meeting will be Tuesday, Sept. 15, at 7:30 p. m.

Graham Would Stress Religion For Premier

Paper Figures Are Misleading

Could NATO Shield Hold Firm?

By BEM PRICE

FONTAINEBLEAU, France, (AP)—On paper 21 1-3 divisions constitute the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's shield for the protection of central Europe.

These divisions supposedly are near full strength, well-equipped and combat ready—425,000 men. A reporter touring Allied commands, however, finds it difficult to believe the Allies could muster more than 250,000 troops, some indifferently equipped, against an attack.

Under NATO policy this land force would meet any Soviet aggression as close to the frontiers of the 750-mile long Iron Curtain as possible and hold them there until the rest of Europe could mobilize.

In discussing NATO policy a briefing officer at Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers, Europe (SHAPE), said, "we have no offensive plans at this headquarters." In response to a question, he added, "We do have counter-offensive plans."

The job of these 21 1-3 divisions is to guard the three main invasion routes into the heart of NATO from the east — the North European plain, the Mittelgebirge Gap in central Germany and the Danube Valley in the south.

The shield force consists on paper of five U.S. divisions, four from the United Kingdom, two from France, seven from Germany, two from Belgium and one from the Netherlands, plus one-third of a Canadian division.

2 Motorists Fined, Jailed

Two motorists were fined and jailed Tuesday in Municipal Court on drunk driving charges.

Judge George L. Brokaw fined Samuel Carson of Wellsville R. D. 1 and Benjamin Franklin Grimes of Beaver Falls $300 and costs each and sentenced both to 10 days in jail.

Carson's driver's permit was suspended for six months and the judge revoked Grimes' right to operate a vehicle in Ohio for the same period.

Carson was found guilty following a hearing. He had pleaded not guilty when arraigned Monday morning. Carson, whose address also was listed as 124 W. 2nd St. on the accident report, was arrested Sunday night on Dresden Ave. after his car struck a rented station wagon operated by a Warren woman.

Grimes was arrested early Tuesday morning on Harvey Ave. after police trailed his car from the state line. Patrolman Charles E. (Bill) Tice said Grimes' auto crossed the center line several times and nearly hit two parked cars.

When Grimes stopped at the traffic signal at Harvey and Putnam St., Tice said he got out of his cruiser but the Pennsylvanian took off at a high rate of speed. He finally stopped about 100 yards down the street after the officer turned on the siren.

Bert B. Waterman of Steubenville, cited Monday night at Lisbon and W. 8th Sts. for crashing the traffic signal, forfeited bond yesterday. Waterman posted $9 Monday night and is to forward the remaining $2 to the court.

Girl, 6, Burned Fatally; Mother Is Hospitalized

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—A 6-year-old Lawrence County girl got too close to a backyard fire her mother had built to heat water for washing Tuesday. The youngster was burned fatally.

Linda Carmon, of Rt. 1, Pedro, died several hours after the accident, in which her clothing ignited and she was burned over her entire body.

Her mother, Mrs. Geraldine Carmon, was taken to Lawrence County General Hospital here with second-degree burns. She got them on her hands, arms and body as she attempted to extinguish the flames that enveloped Linda.

2 Motorists Fined, Jailed

Two motorists were fined and jailed Tuesday in Municipal Court on drunk driving charges.

Judge George L. Brokaw fined Samuel Carson of Wellsville R. D. 1 and Benjamin Franklin Grimes of Beaver Falls $300 and costs each and sentenced both to 10 days in jail.

Carson's driver's permit was suspended for six months and the judge revoked Grimes' right to operate a vehicle in Ohio for the same period.

Carson was found guilty following a hearing. He had pleaded not guilty when arraigned Monday morning. Carson, whose address also was listed as 124 W. 2nd St. on the accident report, was arrested Sunday night on Dresden Ave. after his car struck a rented station wagon operated by a Warren woman.

Grimes was arrested early Tuesday morning on Harvey Ave. after police trailed his car from the state line. Patrolman Charles E. (Bill) Tice said Grimes' auto crossed the center line several times and nearly hit two parked cars.

When Grimes stopped at the traffic signal at Harvey and Putnam St., Tice said he got out of his cruiser but the Pennsylvanian took off at a high rate of speed. He finally stopped about 100 yards down the street after the officer turned on the siren.

Bert B. Waterman of Steubenville, cited Monday night at Lisbon and W. 8th Sts. for crashing the traffic signal, forfeited bond yesterday. Waterman posted $9 Monday night and is to forward the remaining $2 to the court.

Girl, 6, Burned Fatally; Mother Is Hospitalized

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—A 6-year-old Lawrence County girl got too close to a backyard fire her mother had built to heat water for washing Tuesday. The youngster was burned fatally.

Linda Carmon, of Rt. 1, Pedro, died several hours after the accident, in which her clothing ignited and she was burned over her entire body.

Her mother, Mrs. Geraldine Carmon, was taken to Lawrence County General Hospital here with second-degree burns. She got them on her hands, arms and body as she attempted to extinguish the flames that enveloped Linda.

JEANNETTE, Pa. (AP) — A 68-year-old Jeannette man was killed by a Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train Tuesday. The Westmoreland County coroner's office said Jacob Fisne walked in front of the train as it was passing the Jeannette freight station.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

Still Freshly Minted

Jack Paar rounded his second year, blinking in the unaccustomed sunlight of longevity and nationwide popularity. On the second anniversary the menfolk show up in dinner jackets —"I've only worn this thing twice," said Paar — the ladies in evening gowns.

John Crosby

This was a fine gesture of respect but it changed everyone's personality, particularly that of Hermione Gingold, who looked like someone else entirely, and everyone was perhaps a shade more stiff necked than usual.

Genevieve, who normally looks as if she walked out of an early Picasso, lost much of that hoyden freshness in her fancy clothes and even Dodie Goodman was subdued. Still, it was an auspicious occasion.

TWO YEARS, after all, doesn't put this show back in ancient Rome exactly. ("We sound like Cantor and Jessel," said Hugh Downs, "reminiscing about the old days in show business. It's only been two years.")

But the Paar show is important because it is one of the few things left that resembles television as we once knew it — that is to say, freshly minted every day and alive and full of the unexpected.

The key word there is unexpected. Today television is so full of the expected. There is a tremendous anxiety to please on the lowest possible level. The advantage of the Paar show is that it does not so much attempt to please as attempt to keep you awake.

The three ladies, all to some degree regulars, are by no means designed to please the eye, the ear or the intellect. They're designed to ruffle, to titillate, to amuse, maybe even to exasperate and to shock.

WHILE ALL the rest of television seems aimed at putting us to sleep, the Paar show does keep us awake much later than I think is good for us. You never quite know what is going to happen next.

As Paar said on the show, his program started out owing Neilsen 2 points and the other day Arbitron, one of those rating services, tried to convince me that 40 per cent of all New York families watched it. (Not every night, I guess.)

I just hope this popularity doesn't go to anyone's head. I doubt that it will. Anyway, happy anniversary, and many more.

"What's wrong with it, it seems to me, is the lack of daytime television writers. Most of them are former radio hacks, survivors of a more naive era, in which flagpole sitting and dance marathons also qualified as entertainment.

"A handful of these stale creators, together with their ghost writers, presently control television's prime daylight hours.

"But there's a rift in the gloom. The collective incompetence of these radio hand-me-downs is having its effect. Soap opera audiences are declining. The main appeal now is to the aged and to school — or pre-school—children, a highly specialized viewing segment.

"Nighttime television has done much to elevate the public taste. As a result the dailies, with their actionless, cliche-ridden, old-fashioned material are becoming increasingly anachronistic.

"Not often, but occasionally, it's true, a fresh writing talent will try his hand at sudsy writing. His efforts will almost never survive.

"The new writer's stuff seems to them to "move too fast." (He doesn't repeat the same speeches over and over.)

His style is judged too sophisticated. (A laugh turned up in the script.) Or too intellectual. (It had a four-syllable word.)

"Before long, the youthful newcomer is off and away to less frustrating activity."

That comes from within the industry from someone who presumably knows why soap opera is so full of "but I don't understand" or "I was told not to discuss it."

French Women Learn How Other Half Live

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (AP) —Accused of wearing only the bottom halves of their bikinis, two French-born women go on trial today.

The specific charge: outraging public decency.

Aurelia la Mar, 34, and Ilena Rovira, 32, both of Los Angeles, were arrested on the beach, where they had been camping. They told arresting officers that women frequently went without bathing suit tops at French beaches and weren't arrested.

'Tight' Budget Approved For Hancock Use

NEW CUMBERLAND—Hancock County Court Tuesday adopted a budget of $480,208 for the 1959-60 fiscal year.

Meeting in an all-day session, Commissioners William C. Graham, Lyle Virden and Dave N. Thomas, and Donald Stewart, county clerk, finally arrived at the budget total at about 5:30 p. m. This year's budget is "very tight," the veteran clerk commented.

No raises were provided for county personel because of an acute lack of funds, commissioners said. The last raise in salaries for county employes was in 1956.

However, many offices will pay higher salaries next term for elective officials, due to a recent act of the State Legislature.

For the second straight year, no funds were available for purchase of voting machines. Appropriation for a new dog pound amounted to $8,000.

The official budget amounts to only $105 over the 1958-59 budget of $480,103.

Levies on four classes of property will raise $425,539 of the total budget funds, with various offices providing the remaining $54,669.

Total estimated receipts will be derived from the following sources:

Balance from sheriff's office, $21,048; delinquent taxes, $2,000; earnings of the sheriff's office, $500; earnings of the county clerk, $14,800; earnings of the Circuit Court clerk, $4,200; miscellaneous receipts, $2,000; tax forfeitures, $1,500; refund from the Board of Education, $4,121, and justice of the peace fines, $4,500—a total of $54,669.

The sheriff's office will receive the biggest allotment — $75,585 for the staff of Sheriff Clayton H. Hobbs.

Commissioners appropriated $21,360 for the Children's Home at Pughtown, and $35,846 for the County Health Department. The three commissioners will receive $9,700.

Other disbursements include $14,086 in outstanding obligations; $1,701 in unpaid bills, and $15,787 in other outstanding bills. Fire departments in the county will again receive $250 in county aid. A levy for park operation will raise $9,215 for the recreational sites.

Tax rates were set the same as last year — the maximum allowed by the state. Rates are: 11.9 cents per $100 on Class 1, 23.8 cents on Class 2, and 47.06 cents each on Classes III and IV.

Battery-Powered Heart Saves Man

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Hoy Smith, 77, of Fairmont, W. Va., has a battery-powered heartbeat.

He was fitted for this unusual means of staying alive in an operation at Presbyterian Hospital here Monday after two years of heart trouble.

Two electrodes were wired into the wall of Smith's heart. Now he can control his hearbeat with a transistor about the size of a pack of cigarettes.

The transistor, which he keeps in his shirt pocket, is connected to the electrodes by plastic-covered wires which pass through an incision in his chest.

Smith, a retired coal miner, said after the operation: "I haven't felt this good for a long time. Everything's a lot better now."

Convicted Motorist Will Give Up Driving

SALINEVILLE — Harry Duncan, 59, of R. D. 1, cited into Mayor Karl Lindner's court Monday for leaving the scene of an accident, declared he is going to quit driving.

Duncan, who appeared before the mayor previously on a charge of driving without a license, said he is going to "get rid" of his auto. He was cited Saturday night at 9:30 after his auto brushed a parked car owned by Ellsworth Clark of Foundry Hill.

Mayor Lindner suspended $75 of a $100 fine on condition Duncan pay for the damages. When the mayor advised Duncan he would get six demerit points under the state penalty system for traffic violations, Duncan said he is giving up driving.

It's Up To Monroe Group Now, Agriculture Head Points Out

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A State Agriculture Department investigation of the Monroe County Agricultural Society is about over, apparently.

Agriculture Director Robert H. Terhune said Tuesday that, if the society carries on its program in the manner recommended by the Ohio Fair Managers' Assn., his department will have no further need to look into its activities.

The Monroe County fair organization's records were subpoenaed by Terhune in June. At the time, he said there were reports of too much responsibility in the hands of individuals and that the society was meeting very infrequently.

The director later met with the society at Woodsfield and explained procedures expected by his department and the Fair Managers' Assn.

Two other investigations continue, however.

Terhune said he plans to visit Lebanon again to follow up on the program of the Warren County Agricultural Society. He has been looking into the group's commitment to harness racing, expenses, income and responsibilities of individual directors. As soon as all members are named to the expanded five-member Racing Commission, he added, he expects to discuss the Warren County situation with it.

Also under study is the Lake County society. Terhune wants a ruling from the attorney general about whether the group can make long-term contracts with harness racing corporations.

12-Inch Main Will Be Moved

The city water department was scheduled to begin work today on relocating a 12-inch main on a section of the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." preparatory to resurfacing the roadway from Broadway to Maple St. in the East End

Although the job will require the rest of this week to complete, work may have to be delayed because of Tuesday's heavy rains, Supt. Frank K. Robinson said.

One-way traffic will be in effect in the 800-foot stretch near the eastern end of the "Hill Rd." where repeated slides have occurred, Robinson warned motorists.

A New Philadelphia contractor is scheduled to begin work next week on the $35,000 resurfacing job under a contract awarded by the State Highway Department. The city and county each will contribute $5,700 toward the cost with the state paying the remainder.

Robinson said the crew with Harold Peterson, distribution foreman in charge, will cut the auxiliary main at both ends and deadend the line on the hillside above the "Hill Rd.," which is not slipping.

Council is expected to authorize the water department to advertise for bids at its next meeting Aug. 17 for some 800 feet of 12-inch pipe and also approve an amended appropriation for some $8,000 to cover the cost of the work.

After the pipe is ordered, the crew will lay the line in a 3-foot trench on the hillside.

The main is used as an auxiliary line to pump water to the downtown area with the water flowing back to East End when pumping is halted. No service will be interrupted, the water superintendent said. The department provided another tap for the only family served by the main, he explained.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN CROSBY

Still Freshly Minted

Jack Paar rounded his second year, blinking in the unaccustomed sunlight of longevity and nationwide popularity. On the second anniversary the menfolk show up in dinner jackets —"I've only worn this thing twice," said Paar — the ladies in evening gowns.

John Crosby

This was a fine gesture of respect but it changed everyone's personality, particularly that of Hermione Gingold, who looked like someone else entirely, and everyone was perhaps a shade more stiff necked than usual.

Genevieve, who normally looks as if she walked out of an early Picasso, lost much of that hoyden freshness in her fancy clothes and even Dodie Goodman was subdued. Still, it was an auspicious occasion.

TWO YEARS, after all, doesn't put this show back in ancient Rome exactly. ("We sound like Cantor and Jessel," said Hugh Downs, "reminiscing about the old days in show business. It's only been two years.")

But the Paar show is important because it is one of the few things left that resembles television as we once knew it — that is to say, freshly minted every day and alive and full of the unexpected.

The key word there is unexpected. Today television is so full of the expected. There is a tremendous anxiety to please on the lowest possible level. The advantage of the Paar show is that it does not so much attempt to please as attempt to keep you awake.

The three ladies, all to some degree regulars, are by no means designed to please the eye, the ear or the intellect. They're designed to ruffle, to titillate, to amuse, maybe even to exasperate and to shock.

WHILE ALL the rest of television seems aimed at putting us to sleep, the Paar show does keep us awake much later than I think is good for us. You never quite know what is going to happen next.

As Paar said on the show, his program started out owing Neilsen 2 points and the other day Arbitron, one of those rating services, tried to convince me that 40 per cent of all New York families watched it. (Not every night, I guess.)

I just hope this popularity doesn't go to anyone's head. I doubt that it will. Anyway, happy anniversary, and many more.

"What's wrong with it, it seems to me, is the lack of daytime television writers. Most of them are former radio hacks, survivors of a more naive era, in which flagpole sitting and dance marathons also qualified as entertainment.

"A handful of these stale creators, together with their ghost writers, presently control television's prime daylight hours.

"But there's a rift in the gloom. The collective incompetence of these radio hand-me-downs is having its effect. Soap opera audiences are declining. The main appeal now is to the aged and to school — or pre-school—children, a highly specialized viewing segment.

"Nighttime television has done much to elevate the public taste. As a result the dailies, with their actionless, cliche-ridden, old-fashioned material are becoming increasingly anachronistic.

"Not often, but occasionally, it's true, a fresh writing talent will try his hand at sudsy writing. His efforts will almost never survive.

His style is judged too sophisticated. (A laugh turned up in the script.) Or too intellectual. (It had a four-syllable word.)

"Before long, the youthful newcomer is off and away to less frustrating activity."

That comes from within the industry from someone who presumably knows why soap opera is so full of "but I don't understand" or "I was told not to discuss it."

'Tight' Budget Approved For Hancock Use

NEW CUMBERLAND—Hancock County Court Tuesday adopted a budget of $480,208 for the 1959-60 fiscal year.

Meeting in an all-day session, Commissioners William C. Graham, Lyle Virden and Dave N. Thomas, and Donald Stewart, county clerk, finally arrived at the budget total at about 5:30 p. m. This year's budget is "very tight," the veteran clerk commented.

No raises were provided for county personel because of an acute lack of funds, commissioners said. The last raise in salaries for county employes was in 1956.

However, many offices will pay higher salaries next term for elective officials, due to a recent act of the State Legislature.

For the second straight year, no funds were available for purchase of voting machines. Appropriation for a new dog pound amounted to $8,000.

The official budget amounts to only $105 over the 1958-59 budget of $480,103.

Levies on four classes of property will raise $425,539 of the total budget funds, with various offices providing the remaining $54,669.

Total estimated receipts will be derived from the following sources:

Balance from sheriff's office, $21,048; delinquent taxes, $2,000; earnings of the sheriff's office, $500; earnings of the county clerk, $14,800; earnings of the Circuit Court clerk, $4,200; miscellaneous receipts, $2,000; tax forfeitures, $1,500; refund from the Board of Education, $4,121, and justice of the peace fines, $4,500—a total of $54,669.

The sheriff's office will receive the biggest allotment — $75,585 for the staff of Sheriff Clayton H. Hobbs.

Commissioners appropriated $21,360 for the Children's Home at Pughtown, and $35,846 for the County Health Department. The three commissioners will receive $9,700.

Other disbursements include $14,086 in outstanding obligations; $1,701 in unpaid bills, and $15,787 in other outstanding bills. Fire departments in the county will again receive $250 in county aid. A levy for park operation will raise $9,215 for the recreational sites.

Tax rates were set the same as last year — the maximum allowed by the state. Rates are: 11.9 cents per $100 on Class 1, 23.8 cents on Class 2, and 47.06 cents each on Classes III and IV.

Battery-Powered Heart Saves Man

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Hoy Smith, 77, of Fairmont, W. Va., has a battery-powered heartbeat.

He was fitted for this unusual means of staying alive in an operation at Presbyterian Hospital here Monday after two years of heart trouble.

Two electrodes were wired into the wall of Smith's heart. Now he can control his hearbeat with a transistor about the size of a pack of cigarettes.

The transistor, which he keeps in his shirt pocket, is connected to the electrodes by plastic-covered wires which pass through an incision in his chest.

Smith, a retired coal miner, said after the operation: "I haven't felt this good for a long time. Everything's a lot better now."

Convicted Motorist Will Give Up Driving

SALINEVILLE — Harry Duncan, 59, of R. D. 1, cited into Mayor Karl Lindner's court Monday for leaving the scene of an accident, declared he is going to quit driving.

Duncan, who appeared before the mayor previously on a charge of driving without a license, said he is going to "get rid" of his auto. He was cited Saturday night at 9:30 after his auto brushed a parked car owned by Ellsworth Clark of Foundry Hill.

Mayor Lindner suspended $75 of a $100 fine on condition Duncan pay for the damages. When the mayor advised Duncan he would get six demerit points under the state penalty system for traffic violations, Duncan said he is giving up driving.

It's Up To Monroe Group Now, Agriculture Head Points Out

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A State Agriculture Department investigation of the Monroe County Agricultural Society is about over, apparently.

Agriculture Director Robert H. Terhune said Tuesday that, if the society carries on its program in the manner recommended by the Ohio Fair Managers' Assn., his department will have no further need to look into its activities.

The Monroe County fair organization's records were subpoenaed by Terhune in June. At the time, he said there were reports of too much responsibility in the hands of individuals and that the society was meeting very infrequently.

The director later met with the society at Woodsfield and explained procedures expected by his department and the Fair Managers' Assn.

Two other investigations continue, however.

Terhune said he plans to visit Lebanon again to follow up on the program of the Warren County Agricultural Society. He has been looking into the group's commitment to harness racing, expenses, income and responsibilities of individual directors. As soon as all members are named to the expanded five-member Racing Commission, he added, he expects to discuss the Warren County situation with it.

Also under study is the Lake County society. Terhune wants a ruling from the attorney general about whether the group can make long-term contracts with harness racing corporations.

12-Inch Main Will Be Moved

The city water department was scheduled to begin work today on relocating a 12-inch main on a section of the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." preparatory to resurfacing the roadway from Broadway to Maple St. in the East End

Although the job will require the rest of this week to complete, work may have to be delayed because of Tuesday's heavy rains, Supt. Frank K. Robinson said.

One-way traffic will be in effect in the 800-foot stretch near the eastern end of the "Hill Rd." where repeated slides have occurred, Robinson warned motorists.

A New Philadelphia contractor is scheduled to begin work next week on the $35,000 resurfacing job under a contract awarded by the State Highway Department. The city and county each will contribute $5,700 toward the cost with the state paying the remainder.

Robinson said the crew with Harold Peterson, distribution foreman in charge, will cut the auxiliary main at both ends and deadend the line on the hillside above the "Hill Rd.," which is not slipping.

Council is expected to authorize the water department to advertise for bids at its next meeting Aug. 17 for some 800 feet of 12-inch pipe and also approve an amended appropriation for some $8,000 to cover the cost of the work.

After the pipe is ordered, the crew will lay the line in a 3-foot trench on the hillside.

The main is used as an auxiliary line to pump water to the downtown area with the water flowing back to East End when pumping is halted. No service will be interrupted, the water superintendent said. The department provided another tap for the only family served by the main, he explained.

Strike Effects Spread More

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—The effects of the three-week-old steel strike continued to spread today like a contagious illness, claiming thousands more innocent victims in industries allied to steel.

An unofficial tally of layoffs in industries depending on steel indicates that nearly 100,000 workers are idle.

They are furloughed men who have no current arguments with their companies and whose companies have no grievances with them. They became involved in the dispute because their companies depend on steel to operate at full scale.

Their prospects for regular work are remote until the 500,000-man nationwide steel walkout is settled.

The victims include mostly coal and iron miners, railroad workers, truckers, and other transportation men who handle steel. To lesser extents there have been layoffs among dock and lake boatmen and those employed by the steel plants who are not members of the striking United Steelworkers Union.

Cream fine dry bread crumbs with butter and add herbs. Arrange cooked shrimp in a pie plate and put bits of the butter combination over them. Sprinkle with paprika and broil slowly. Delicious for lunch with a green salad!

New Filing System Saves County $4,000

LISBON — A new filing system has been completed in the Car Title Department, according to Carl L. Stacey, clerk of courts.

Over 100,000 titles have been destroyed and 472,375 have been renumbered and refiled. This was accomplished by using old jackets and renumbering them and refiling. This filing system did away with 12 filing cabinets and left a 5-year supply of filing jackets on hand.

The system has been accomplished since Stacey took office in November 1958 and represents a saving of $4,000 in filing cabinets and jackets.

Husband Gets 90 Days For Assault On Wife

A city man was sentenced to 90 days in jail today in Municipal Court on an assault charge filed by his wife while similar charges against two other men were dismissed at the request of their wives.

Judge George L. Brokaw handed the stiff jail term to William Cornell, 218 Center Ln., after he struck Mrs. Gladys Cornell, fracturing her jaw. He was arrested on the charge filed by his wife.

Assault charges against Donald Brown, 454 1st Ave., and Elzie Rodgers, 1154 Pennsylvania Ave., were dismissed on payment of costs at the requests of Mrs. Maxine Brown and Mrs. Delores Rodgers.

Salineville Water Services To Be Cut

SALINEVILLE — Water service for homes and businesses east of the Post Office at the High Bridge will be turned off Thursday at 6:30 a. m. to permit workers to install two new fire hydrants along E. Main St.

Mayor Karl Lindner said if the installation progresses without delay, water service probably will be restored about noon.

Police-Sheriff Group Skips August Meeting

LISBON—The Columbiana County Police and Sheriff's Association will not meet in August, according to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan, president.

Place and time of the September meeting will be announced later, he said.

Midland C. Of C. Joins Borough In Support Of Bridge

The Midland Chamber of Commerce has joined Midland Borough Council in support of a priority for a Shippingport bridge, James Russell of Shippingport, general chairman of the special committee of the South Beaver County Civic Association promoting the bridge, said.

He said that Crucible Steel Co. and its neighbors seem to be going in opposite directions on the bridge issue. He said George Burrier, superintendent of the Midland Works, is an advocate of the Vanport crossing, which apparently believes would help Crucible with its steel shipment, one third of its total production, which it moves by truck.

Russell said that a special committee of the Chamber of Commerce is circulating petitions in stores and is planning to carry them from door-to-door. Members include Mike Hornick, chairman, A. J. Martell, Don Green and Vic George.

He said similar activity is stirring in Glasgow Borough, or Smiths Ferry, where Councilman John Childs has said that Council will adopt a resolution and that petitions are being circulated.

Meanwhile, signatures are going on petitions over a broad area in many communities of Southern Beaver County where the association is stimulating public opinion under leadership of local chairmen, he said.

South siders will seek an appointment with County Commissioner Gordon Camp when he returns from his Florida vacation, Russell said.

Cumberland Budget Shows Slight Increase

NEW CUMBERLAND Town Council Tuesday night adopted the 1959-60 budget the amount of $24,640—an increase of $537 over that of last year.

Tax rates remain the same on all classes of property with the levies raising an estimated $8,551 of the budget. Special levies will raise $2,800. The fire department will receive $1,680, and playgrounds and the Community Hall $1,120.

The only major change in the estimated expenditures was a reduction in the salary of the assistant clerk from $1,000 to $300. All other salaries remained the same as last year.

July Building Totals $30,100 At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Five building permits for construction estimated to cost $30,100 were issued in July, compared to construction worth $5,500 in June, Mrs. Sue Griffith, secretary of the city Planning Commission, announced today.

The permits brought to $112,000 the total of building work this year. The July projects included a steel addition to the R. H. Murray Feed Mill of 129 E. Market St., a new front and entrance to the First National Bank and garages and patios.

New Filing System Saves County $4,000

LISBON — A new filing system has been completed in the Car Title Department, according to Carl L. Stacey, clerk of courts.

Over 100,000 titles have been destroyed and 472,375 have been renumbered and refiled. This was accomplished by using old jackets and renumbering them and refiling. This filing system did away with 12 filing cabinets and left a 5-year supply of filing jackets on hand.

The system has been accomplished since Stacey took office in November 1958 and represents a saving of $4,000 in filing cabinets and jackets.

Husband Gets 90 Days For Assault On Wife

A city man was sentenced to 90 days in jail today in Municipal Court on an assault charge filed by his wife while similar charges against two other men were dismissed at the request of their wives.

Judge George L. Brokaw handed the stiff jail term to William Cornell, 218 Center Ln., after he struck Mrs. Gladys Cornell, fracturing her jaw. He was arrested on the charge filed by his wife.

Assault charges against Donald Brown, 454 1st Ave., and Elzie Rodgers, 1154 Pennsylvania Ave., were dismissed on payment of costs at the requests of Mrs. Maxine Brown and Mrs. Delores Rodgers.

Salineville Water Services To Be Cut

SALINEVILLE — Water service for homes and businesses east of the Post Office at the High Bridge will be turned off Thursday at 6:30 a. m. to permit workers to install two new fire hydrants along E. Main St.

Mayor Karl Lindner said if the installation progresses without delay, water service probably will be restored about noon.

Police-Sheriff Group Skips August Meeting

LISBON—The Columbiana County Police and Sheriff's Association will not meet in August, according to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan, president.

Place and time of the September meeting will be announced later, he said.

Midland C. Of C. Joins Borough In Support Of Bridge

The Midland Chamber of Commerce has joined Midland Borough Council in support of a priority for a Shippingport bridge, James Russell of Shippingport, general chairman of the special committee of the South Beaver County Civic Association promoting the bridge, said.

He said that Crucible Steel Co. and its neighbors seem to be going in opposite directions on the bridge issue. He said George Burrier, superintendent of the Midland Works, is an advocate of the Vanport crossing, which apparently believes would help Crucible with its steel shipment, one third of its total production, which it moves by truck.

Russell said that a special committee of the Chamber of Commerce is circulating petitions in stores and is planning to carry them from door-to-door. Members include Mike Hornick, chairman, A. J. Martell, Don Green and Vic George.

He said similar activity is stirring in Glasgow Borough, or Smiths Ferry, where Councilman John Childs has said that Council will adopt a resolution and that petitions are being circulated.

Meanwhile, signatures are going on petitions over a broad area in many communities of Southern Beaver County where the association is stimulating public opinion under leadership of local chairmen, he said.

South siders will seek an appointment with County Commissioner Gordon Camp when he returns from his Florida vacation, Russell said.

Cumberland Budget Shows Slight Increase

NEW CUMBERLAND Town Council Tuesday night adopted the 1959-60 budget the amount of $24,640—an increase of $537 over that of last year.

Tax rates remain the same on all classes of property with the levies raising an estimated $8,551 of the budget. Special levies will raise $2,800. The fire department will receive $1,680, and playgrounds and the Community Hall $1,120.

The only major change in the estimated expenditures was a reduction in the salary of the assistant clerk from $1,000 to $300. All other salaries remained the same as last year.

July Building Totals $30,100 At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Five building permits for construction estimated to cost $30,100 were issued in July, compared to construction worth $5,500 in June, Mrs. Sue Griffith, secretary of the city Planning Commission, announced today.

The permits brought to $112,000 the total of building work this year. The July projects included a steel addition to the R. H. Murray Feed Mill of 129 E. Market St., a new front and entrance to the First National Bank and garages and patios.

Probe Will Continue

Agricultural Group Plans Issuance Of Zoning Data

Getting facts to the people of Columbiana County concerning the procedures in rural zoning, as well as the advantages and disadvantages, will be one of the phases of work of the Columbiana County Agricultural Council in the year ahead, according to plans announced by the public affairs committee, of which Galen Greenisen of Salem R. D. is chairman.

The council will definitely not promote rural zoning but will try by various means to make information available to those who wish to know more about it.

The rural-urban committee, of which H. L. Reuter of Lisbon is chairman, is planning with the East Liverpool Chamber of Commerce for a farm tour, dinner and program on Oct. 14.

A similar event is also being planned with the Salem Chamber of Commerce. The committee is trying to create a better rural-urban understanding and to utilize Farm-City Week in November for this purpose.

The council committee on agricultural problems, of which Cecil Conkle of New Waterford is chairman, is discussing the problem created for farm boys by the late dismissal of school in the spring of 1960.

It was said that long recesses at Christmas time and Easter extend the school term into the hay making period. The committee also discussed the problem of misinformation being given the public by various magazines by writing up the 1-in-100,000 large and unusual farm operations in contrast to the small, family-size efficient operation. The latter constitutes most of the farms in the United States.

It was said at a recent committee meeting that urban people are grossly misinformed on agriculture in general and its problems through magazines and large city newspaper stories that present only half the facts.

The rural living committee of the council, of which Mrs. Frank Murray of Lisbon is chairman, is planning to send a questionnaire to local rural organizations throughout the county to gather facts pertaining to community organization and community life. The committee believes that something can be done in some communities to so organize local meetings and activities as to avoid competition of time and effort of many rural families.

The council, made up of representatives of various farm and rural organizations and agencies, will meet in Lisbon Aug. 31 for further discussions.

Guarding Home Front

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Nationalist China's Parliament is trying to see that the country's servicemen keep the girls they leave behind, at least until they get home. A new law approved by the Yuan — parliament — prohibits the wife of a serviceman from seeking a divorce or the girl friend of a bachelor from breaking off an engagement while the soldier is at the front or on other "difficult" duty.

Poet, Family Held Captive By Two Escaped Convicts

ANAMOSA, Iowa (AP) — Iowa poet Paul Engle probably could write a book about the tense eight hours he and his family were held captive in their home by two knife-wielding escaped convicts.

The prisoners, recaptured, were back behind bars today at Anamosa Men's Reformatory and may face additional years on their sentences.

At 3 p.m. Monday, Mrs. Engle was in the kitchen ironing. The men entered. An hour later their daughter, Sara, 14, returned from a horseback ride. She became the second captive. Then the father and daughter Mary, 18, returned from Iowa City where Engle teaches.

The convicts, Donald Sills, 25, and Larry Morrison, 21, had taken all of the kitchen knives. These were their only weapons.

The Engles sat on chairs while one of the men searched unsuccessfully for guns. In whispers Engle urged his family to remain calm.

"We were scared to death," Mary said. "They promised they wouldn't hurt anybody but threatened to take Sara as a hostage. I told them her picture had been in the paper Sunday and people would recognize her. I guess that made them change their mind."

Engle remarked he had had a long day at the University of Iowa and was hungry.

Mrs. Engle started fixing supper and Mary helped.

Engle told the men he had work to do and wanted to use his typewriter.

"They said go ahead, so he wrote two book reviews and some letters," Mary explained.

The evening wore on — four people, reading and occasionally talking with two convicts.

The men, after hearing a radio broadcast, left about 11 p.m. in the family car.

The Engles were bound and gagged by the convicts before they left. Sara had smuggled a pair of scissors to a nearby birdcage and used them to cut herself free, then freed her parents and sister.

The telephone line to the home had been cut, and the Engles went to a neighbor's home to notify authorities.

The prisoners were captured Tuesday.

Civil Defense Groups Appoint Members For 3 Committees

Three committees were appointed and plans for a Civil Defense alert Aug. 30 were made at a meeting of the fire and mass feeding teams of the 31st Mobile Support Group Tuesday night at the Glenmoor fire station.

Named to an activities committee for future programs were Sam Wolfe, Herman Heiney, D. S. Debolt, Kenneth Long, Joseph Arcuragi and Mrs. Rachel Emmerling.

John Vervin and C. R. Ammon were named to obtain a parade banner for the units, and Mrs. Dorothy Lockhart and Mrs. Pearl Long were named the refreshment committee.

About 30 attended the meeting at which Arcuragi, assistant platoon leader, was in charge. Discussion was held on the alert of July 19, and plans were made for improved radio communications at the alert Aug. 30.

A meeting of all team leaders will be held Aug. 16 at Lisbon to plan for the alert.

Heiney urged firemen to attend all training meetings. The group will take part in a parade Friday at Calcutta, leaving the fire station at 7:15 with fire, rescue and feeding teams in full uniform for marching.

A water relay show will be held at Guilford Lake Sunday, with local units leaving the station at 1 p. m.

It was announced a first aid class will begin in September, and anyone interested may register with Heiney or Arcuragi. The next meeting will be Aug. 18.

Photographic Contest Closes With 5 Entries

Five area residents have submitted photographs in a contest sponsored by the City Loan Co., Don Eckert, who handled the entries for the firm, said today.

The entrants are Miss Ruth Urie, 818 Broadway, and Miss Anna Gallia, 1703 Commerce St., both of Wellsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ward, 2113 Ohio Ave., and Paul Groubert, 611 College St.

Agricultural Group Plans Issuance Of Zoning Data

Getting facts to the people of Columbiana County concerning the procedures in rural zoning, as well as the advantages and disadvantages, will be one of the phases of work of the Columbiana County Agricultural Council in the year ahead, according to plans announced by the public affairs committee, of which Galen Greenisen of Salem R. D. is chairman.

The council will definitely not promote rural zoning but will try by various means to make information available to those who wish to know more about it.

The rural-urban committee, of which H. L. Reuter of Lisbon is chairman, is planning with the East Liverpool Chamber of Commerce for a farm tour, dinner and program on Oct. 14.

A similar event is also being planned with the Salem Chamber of Commerce. The committee is trying to create a better rural-urban understanding and to utilize Farm-City Week in November for this purpose.

The council committee on agricultural problems, of which Cecil Conkle of New Waterford is chairman, is discussing the problem created for farm boys by the late dismissal of school in the spring of 1960.

It was said that long recesses at Christmas time and Easter extend the school term into the hay making period. The committee also discussed the problem of misinformation being given the public by various magazines by writing up the 1-in-100,000 large and unusual farm operations in contrast to the small, family-size efficient operation. The latter constitutes most of the farms in the United States.

It was said at a recent committee meeting that urban people are grossly misinformed on agriculture in general and its problems through magazines and large city newspaper stories that present only half the facts.

The rural living committee of the council, of which Mrs. Frank Murray of Lisbon is chairman, is planning to send a questionnaire to local rural organizations throughout the county to gather facts pertaining to community organization and community life. The committee believes that something can be done in some communities to so organize local meetings and activities as to avoid competition of time and effort of many rural families.

The council, made up of representatives of various farm and rural organizations and agencies, will meet in Lisbon Aug. 31 for further discussions.

Guarding Home Front

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Nationalist China's Parliament is trying to see that the country's servicemen keep the girls they leave behind, at least until they get home. A new law approved by the Yuan — parliament — prohibits the wife of a serviceman from seeking a divorce or the girl friend of a bachelor from breaking off an engagement while the soldier is at the front or on other "difficult" duty.

Poet, Family Held Captive By Two Escaped Convicts

ANAMOSA, Iowa (AP) — Iowa poet Paul Engle probably could write a book about the tense eight hours he and his family were held captive in their home by two knife-wielding escaped convicts.

The prisoners, recaptured, were back behind bars today at Anamosa Men's Reformatory and may face additional years on their sentences.

At 3 p.m. Monday, Mrs. Engle was in the kitchen ironing. The men entered. An hour later their daughter, Sara, 14, returned from a horseback ride. She became the second captive. Then the father and daughter Mary, 18, returned from Iowa City where Engle teaches.

The convicts, Donald Sills, 25, and Larry Morrison, 21, had taken all of the kitchen knives. These were their only weapons.

The Engles sat on chairs while one of the men searched unsuccessfully for guns. In whispers Engle urged his family to remain calm.

"We were scared to death," Mary said. "They promised they wouldn't hurt anybody but threatened to take Sara as a hostage. I told them her picture had been in the paper Sunday and people would recognize her. I guess that made them change their mind."

Engle remarked he had had a long day at the University of Iowa and was hungry.

Mrs. Engle started fixing supper and Mary helped.

Engle told the men he had work to do and wanted to use his typewriter.

"They said go ahead, so he wrote two book reviews and some letters," Mary explained.

The evening wore on — four people, reading and occasionally talking with two convicts.

The men, after hearing a radio broadcast, left about 11 p.m. in the family car.

The Engles were bound and gagged by the convicts before they left. Sara had smuggled a pair of scissors to a nearby birdcage and used them to cut herself free, then freed her parents and sister.

The telephone line to the home had been cut, and the Engles went to a neighbor's home to notify authorities.

The prisoners were captured Tuesday.

Civil Defense Groups Appoint Members For 3 Committees

Three committees were appointed and plans for a Civil Defense alert Aug. 30 were made at a meeting of the fire and mass feeding teams of the 31st Mobile Support Group Tuesday night at the Glenmoor fire station.

Named to an activities committee for future programs were Sam Wolfe, Herman Heiney, D. S. Debolt, Kenneth Long, Joseph Arcuragi and Mrs. Rachel Emmerling.

John Vervin and C. R. Ammon were named to obtain a parade banner for the units, and Mrs. Dorothy Lockhart and Mrs. Pearl Long were named the refreshment committee.

About 30 attended the meeting at which Arcuragi, assistant platoon leader, was in charge. Discussion was held on the alert of July 19, and plans were made for improved radio communications at the alert Aug. 30.

A meeting of all team leaders will be held Aug. 16 at Lisbon to plan for the alert.

Heiney urged firemen to attend all training meetings. The group will take part in a parade Friday at Calcutta, leaving the fire station at 7:15 with fire, rescue and feeding teams in full uniform for marching.

A water relay show will be held at Guilford Lake Sunday, with local units leaving the station at 1 p. m.

It was announced a first aid class will begin in September, and anyone interested may register with Heiney or Arcuragi. The next meeting will be Aug. 18.

Francona Drives Home Four Runs Against Senators

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cal McLish, Cleveland's big winner who has pitched 10 innings in the past three days—two of them in the All - Star game—shoots for his 14th triumph tonight against Washington.

McLish (13-4) will pitch the second game of a twi-night doubleheader, with Jim Grant (6-4) going in the opener. Pedro Ramos (10-13) and Tex Clevenger (4-2) will hurl for the Senators. Grant has beaten the Nats nine straight times over a two-season span.

McLish feels he's rested enough and wants to help in the drive to overtake the Chicago White Sox. Herb Score was slated to pitch, but Manager Joe Gordon passed over him when McLish said he's ready.

Cleveland sent the Senators down to their 17th straight loss, 8-2, Tuesday night. Jim Perry pitched a six-hitter and Tito Francona continued his hot hitting, driving in four runs with a homer and triple.

By winning Tuesday night, the Indians cut Chicago's lead to two games.

Turning in his third straight triumph as a starter, Perry, once the team's bullpen ace, now has an 8-3 mark. He lost a shutout when Jim Lemon hit a two-run homer in the fourth inning.

The Indians grabbed a 6-0 lead in the first three innings off Bill Fischer (8-7). Two runs came home in the second frame on singles by George Strickland and Woodie Held and Perry's booming triple.

Four more runs crossed in the third. Vic Power walked and Minnie Minoso singled. Francona, now batting .416 then cracked a triple to center and scored when Bob Allison bobbled the ball.

A walk to Strickland and Russ Nixon's single counted the fourth run of the inning.

In the seventh, Minoso walked and Francona blasted his 12th home run into the center field bleachers to make it 8-2.

Cleveland had 13 hits, everyone in the starting lineup getting at least one.

Gordon, true to his promise, shuffled the Tribe lineup. Francona was at first base, Power at third and Strickland at shortstop. Held patrolled center field.

Spahn Lifts Milwaukee Back To First Place In National

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Warren Spahn has led the Milwaukee Braves back into the National League lead with a brilliant three-hitter against the San Francisco Giants Tuesday night.

The 38-year-old left-hander who has won 261 games, only five short of Eppa Rixey's all-time high for a National League southpaw, allowed only one hit in the first 7 2-3 innings. That was a single by Willie McCovey with two gone in the first. He walked Willie Mays in the fourth but not another Giant reached base until the eighth.

Jim Hegan's two-out single broke the spell and the Giants broke the shutout with two walks and Willie Kirkland's double in the last of the ninth.

The 6-1 Milwaukee victory put the Braves on top by .001 over the Giants with Los Angeles, a 4-1 loser to Cincinnati, another half game behind.

It was the first time Fred Haney's defending champions had held first place since July 8, just after the first All-Star game break and shortly before their disastrous seven-game losing slump. Except for one day, July 29, when Los Angeles edged ahead by a half game, the Giants had been on top.

Sloppy Giant fielding helped ruin the night for the capacity crowd of 22,959 at Seals Stadium. San Francisco committed five errors, two by losing pitcher Mike McCormick.

Milwaukee, enroute to its 11th victory in its last 13 games, picked up unearned runs in the first and third and landed on McCormick for two more in the fifth. Del Crandall's 13th homer with Billy Bruton on base completed the scoring in the eighth.

While the Braves were winning the opener of this important three-game series, Los Angeles was blowing a chance to take over first place.

Vada Pinson hit a two-run homer and lefty Joe Nuxhall allowed only three hits in beating the Dodgers who led momentarily in the first inning on Wally Moon's ninth home run. Pinson connected for No. 15 over the left field screen during the three-run third. Roy McMillan walked, took third on Nuxhall's double and scored on Johnny Temple's sacrifice fly. Then came Pinson's blow that hung defeat No. 5 on Stan Williams. Jerry Lynch also homered in the eighth off Roger Craig.

Nuxhall was the first left-hander to start against the Dodgers and beat them in their Coliseum this season.

Pittsburgh's Vern Law subdued St. Louis 7-3 despite home runs by Stan Musial and George Crowe. The Pirates routed loser Bob Gibson in the three-run fifth after scoring three times in the first inning. It was Law's 12th victory and Gibson's first defeat since he was brought up from the Omaha farm club.

Harry Anderson's two-run double provided Robin Roberts with enough runs for Philadelphia's 2-1 margin over Chicago in the only day game. Roberts 10th victory of the season was the 216th of his brilliant career.

Chicago's Margin Cut By Baltimore In Junior Circuit

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

With Tito Francona on the warpath there is new hope in the camp of the Cleveland Indians who now trail Chicago by only two games in the American League race.

Francona leads both majors with his .416 batting average but he probably won't have enough at bats to be eligible for the league title. He needs about 255 more appearances at the plate and the Indians have only 49 games to play.

Certainly the deal that brought Francona to Cleveland from Detroit in exchange for Larry Doby last March ranks with one of the best Frank Lane ever made.

Doby finally drifted to Chicago again and was shipped down to San Diego in the Pacific Coast League just the other day.

Francona helped send poor stumbling Washington down to its 17th straight defeat Tuesday night when he drove in four runs in Cleveland's 8-2 victory. The outfielder sparked a four-run surge in the third with his two-run triple and hit his 12th homer in the seventh after Minnie Minoso walked. In the meantime, Jim Perry was throwing a six-hitter to beat Bill Fischer.

Cookie Lavagetto's Senators, who haven't won since they beat Kansas City in the first half of a July 19 doubleheader, can beat the club record for futility if they blow Wednesday's doubleheader. In fact, the American League and modern major league record is only 20, shared by three clubs, the most recent being the 1943 Philadelphia A's. A Washington club lost 18 in a row in 1948.

Baltimore gave Chicago a dose of its own one-run medicine. The Orioles came up with two unearned runs in the eighth for a 3-2 decision over the White Sox, who had won 26 of 31 previous one-run games.

Rookie Ken McBride from Indianapolis left in the eighth with the bases loaded and Chicago leading 2-1 on Johnny Romano's two-run pinch homer. Relief man Turk Lown walked in the tying run before Gerry Staley took over. The Orioles scored the clincher when Luis Aparicio couldn't get off a throw after fielding Billy Klaus' grounder. Billy Hoeft was the winner and McBride the loser.

Frank Lary worked his usual magic on the Yankees as Detroit made it 11 out of 15 over New York with a 4-3 decision. Lary now has won five in a row over the Yanks this year and holds a 21-5 lifetime edge. Neil Chrisley, who has only nine hits, slammed his sixth homer for the Tigers and Mickey Mantle hit No. 21 and Elston Howard No. 13 for New York.

Kansas City dropped to fourth place by splitting a twi-nighter at Boston. Pete Runnels drove in three runs in Boston's 4-1 opening victory for Tom Brewer. The A's scored six in the sixth to take the second game 8-6. Eleven men batted in the big inning that ruined Al Schroll and gave Murry Dickson his second victory.

Liston, Valdes Clash Tonight

CHICAGO (AP) —Nino Valdes, the giant Cuban, will try to reenter the heavyweight picture tonight by upsetting the third ranked contender, Sonny Liston.

Liston, No. 3 by both the National Boxing Assn. and Ring magazine, is unbeaten in 17 bouts and has lost only once in 25. He is a solid favorite to dipose of the 34-year-old Valdes in the televised (ABC, 10 p.m. EDT) 10 rounder in Chicago Stadium.

Valdes, once the top-rated contender, knocked out Dan Hodge in eight rounds last April but a month later lost a 10 round decision to Alonzo Johnson in Madison Square Garden. In 19 years as a pro, Valdes has won 48 to 67 bouts, 35 of them by knockouts.

PHILLIES OUTFIELDER Solly Drake is forced at second on a grounder by Pitcher Robin Roberts in the seventh inning of the game with the Chicago Cubs Tuesday at Chicago. NFL, Canadian Teams Will Meet In Exhibition

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pro football whirl, climaxed so brilliantly with Baltimore's overtime National Football League championship victory last December, gets started tonight with an offering of a different nature.

The NFL Chicago Cardinals will play the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Big Four Football Union in an exhibition game featuring the rules of both leagues.

This is not the first time NFL and Canadian teams have matched styles of play, but it will offer good comparisons for the rule makers and football style devotees.

When the Cards have the ball, each team will have 11 men on the field a la American style of play. Also the U.S. rule of unlimited interference will be in effect when either team is on the offensive.

The teams will be allowed 12 men when the Argos are on offensive. But the big excitement in Toronto is the unlimited blocking rule, directly opposed to the Canadian rule that says a ball carrier is on his own once he hits the secondary.

Card Coach Frank (Pop) Ivy, who was a successful Canadian professional coach before taking over the Cards last season, may have Tom Catlin, veteran center whom the Cards obtained Tuesday from the Cleveland Browns. They gave up a draft choice for the former Oklahoma star.

Injuries were the talk of some of the other NFL training camps. In Los Angeles' Redland, Calif., camp, halfback Jon Arnett's hand injury will keep him sidelined only two weeks, instead of six to eight as originally feared.

In the Colts camp, veteran linebacker Leo Sanford must undergo surgery for a recurring knee injury.

Halfback Gene Gedman and guard John Gordy will miss the Detroit Lions exhibition game Saturday against the Rams at Boulder, Colo. Gedman has an ailing knee, and Gordy a badly twisted ankle. End Jim Doran's bruised shoulder makes him a doubtful starter.

Browns Trade Catlin

CLEVELAND (AP) — Linebacker Tom Catlin was traded to the Chicago Cardinals Tuesday for a draft choice, the Cleveland Browns announced.

City League Resumes Play

If the weatherman permits, the City League baseball playoffs will resume tonight at Patterson Field with Cox Construction meeting the East Liverpool Merchants.

The Merchants hold a one-game edge over Cox's in the best two of three game series.

Lawrenceville and Irondale, which have been rained out the last two evenings, will try again Thursday at Patterson Field.

Jones Gains 12th Win

Floyd Jones picked up his 12th victory of the season when Glenmoor U. P. downed Calvary Methodist, 11-7 in a Church Softball contest Tuesday.

Liston, Valdes Clash Tonight

CHICAGO (AP) —Nino Valdes, the giant Cuban, will try to reenter the heavyweight picture tonight by upsetting the third ranked contender, Sonny Liston.

Liston, No. 3 by both the National Boxing Assn. and Ring magazine, is unbeaten in 17 bouts and has lost only once in 25. He is a solid favorite to dipose of the 34-year-old Valdes in the televised (ABC, 10 p.m. EDT) 10 rounder in Chicago Stadium.

Valdes, once the top-rated contender, knocked out Dan Hodge in eight rounds last April but a month later lost a 10 round decision to Alonzo Johnson in Madison Square Garden. In 19 years as a pro, Valdes has won 48 to 67 bouts, 35 of them by knockouts.

NFL, Canadian Teams Will Meet In Exhibition

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pro football whirl, climaxed so brilliantly with Baltimore's overtime National Football League championship victory last December, gets started tonight with an offering of a different nature.

The NFL Chicago Cardinals will play the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Big Four Football Union in an exhibition game featuring the rules of both leagues.

This is not the first time NFL and Canadian teams have matched styles of play, but it will offer good comparisons for the rule makers and football style devotees.

When the Cards have the ball, each team will have 11 men on the field a la American style of play. Also the U.S. rule of unlimited interference will be in effect when either team is on the offensive.

The teams will be allowed 12 men when the Argos are on offensive. But the big excitement in Toronto is the unlimited blocking rule, directly opposed to the Canadian rule that says a ball carrier is on his own once he hits the secondary.

Card Coach Frank (Pop) Ivy, who was a successful Canadian professional coach before taking over the Cards last season, may have Tom Catlin, veteran center whom the Cards obtained Tuesday from the Cleveland Browns. They gave up a draft choice for the former Oklahoma star.

Injuries were the talk of some of the other NFL training camps. In Los Angeles' Redland, Calif., camp, halfback Jon Arnett's hand injury will keep him sidelined only two weeks, instead of six to eight as originally feared.

In the Colts camp, veteran linebacker Leo Sanford must undergo surgery for a recurring knee injury.

Halfback Gene Gedman and guard John Gordy will miss the Detroit Lions exhibition game Saturday against the Rams at Boulder, Colo. Gedman has an ailing knee, and Gordy a badly twisted ankle. End Jim Doran's bruised shoulder makes him a doubtful starter.

Browns Trade Catlin

CLEVELAND (AP) — Linebacker Tom Catlin was traded to the Chicago Cardinals Tuesday for a draft choice, the Cleveland Browns announced.

City League Resumes Play

If the weatherman permits, the City League baseball playoffs will resume tonight at Patterson Field with Cox Construction meeting the East Liverpool Merchants.

The Merchants hold a one-game edge over Cox's in the best two of three game series.

Lawrenceville and Irondale, which have been rained out the last two evenings, will try again Thursday at Patterson Field.

Jones Gains 12th Win

Floyd Jones picked up his 12th victory of the season when Glenmoor U. P. downed Calvary Methodist, 11-7 in a Church Softball contest Tuesday.

Dike Beede 'Scores' Well With Local Rotary Club

Youngstown University's Dwight (Dike) Beede, a veteran of more than 25 years of coaching intercollegiate football, scored well with the Rotary Club at its meeting Tuesday noon in the Travelers Hotel.

Beede, who tallied a pair of touchdowns against the famed "Four Horsemen of Notre Dame" during his early playing days with Carnegie Tech, bowled club members over like a husky fullback in relating some of his experiences in the coaching game.

Among his greater accomplishments in the gridiron world was being named "Small College Coach of the Year" in 1957 by the Football Writers of America.

—:—

HOWEVER, such a signal honor probably doesn't seem as important in the amiable coach's eyes as was his idea of introducing flags into football for denoting fouls instead of the horn.

It was back in 1941 that Beede had his wife prepare four red flags, which he weighted with "sinkers from a fishing tackle box", for the referees to use during the Youngstown University-Oklahoma City grid battle.

Beede contended that a horn or whistle distracted players and sometimes stopped action in the game at a crucial point—taking much of the suspense out of important plays.

Referee Jack McPhee agreed to use the flags instead of blowing a horn for signaling a foul and the referee's handkerchief found a permanent place in football. McPhee used the same Beede handkerchief in a Pacific Coast Rose Bowl game and the idea later spread across the country.

THE YU COACH joked that he was once introduced at a meeting as the man who invented the game of "drop the handkerchief."

While his handkerchief idea improved the game considerably, Beede said he thinks othe recent changes in the rules are good for the game and are actually necessary.

Beede contended that "football changes over the years more than any other game" and voiced a firm belief in development of new rules to meet the accelerated pace. "The many changes typify the spirit of America," he said.

Beede also touched on his playing days in the era of "the wedge," the famous four Notre Dame backs and the "push and pull" games of the early 1920's. It was in Beede's playing days with Carnegie Tech that Knute Rockne came up with the "goose step" of backfield men and other innovations—some of which were made famous by the late Grantland Rice.

—:—

NEW RULES in the "game of changes" this year stipulate that goal posts will be widened from 18 feet, 6-inches to 23 feet, 4 inches, the mentor said, and a change in the substitution rule allowing a player on the bench to enter the action any time during the game as long as the clock is stopped.

Developing topnotch halfbacks and guards at YU isn't his only interest, Beede pointed out. His primary activity outside of the sport is operating a 130-acre tree farm near Elkton.

He was introduced by Frank C. Dawson, his son-in-law, who was program chairman. Guests included Cecil M. Ward of Mobile, Ala., a former school teacher in East Liverpool and Chester. The Rotary Club's annual picnic will be Aug. 24, Charles Taylor, president, announced. Sixty attended yesterday's meeting.

Played Against 'Four Horsemen'

Dike Beede 'Scores' Well With Local Rotary Club

Youngstown University's Dwight (Dike) Beede, a veteran of more than 25 years of coaching intercollegiate football, scored well with the Rotary Club at its meeting Tuesday noon in the Travelers Hotel.

Beede, who tallied a pair of touchdowns against the famed "Four Horsemen of Notre Dame" during his early playing days with Carnegie Tech, bowled club members over like a husky fullback in relating some of his experiences in the coaching game.

Among his greater accomplishments in the gridiron world was being named "Small College Coach of the Year" in 1957 by the Football Writers of America.

—:—

HOWEVER, such a signal honor probably doesn't seem as important in the amiable coach's eyes as was his idea of introducing flags into football for denoting fouls instead of the horn.

It was back in 1941 that Beede had his wife prepare four red flags, which he weighted with "sinkers from a fishing tackle box", for the referees to use during the Youngstown University-Oklahoma City grid battle.

Beede contended that a horn or whistle distracted players and sometimes stopped action in the game at a crucial point—taking much of the suspense out of important plays.

Referee Jack McPhee agreed to use the flags instead of blowing a horn for signaling a foul and the referee's handkerchief found a permanent place in football. McPhee used the same Beede handkerchief in a Pacific Coast Rose Bowl game and the idea later spread across the country.

THE YU COACH joked that he was once introduced at a meeting as the man who invented the game of "drop the handkerchief."

While his handkerchief idea improved the game considerably, Beede said he thinks othe recent changes in the rules are good for the game and are actually necessary.

Beede contended that "football changes over the years more than any other game" and voiced a firm belief in development of new rules to meet the accelerated pace. "The many changes typify the spirit of America," he said.

Beede also touched on his playing days in the era of "the wedge," the famous four Notre Dame backs and the "push and pull" games of the early 1920's. It was in Beede's playing days with Carnegie Tech that Knute Rockne came up with the "goose step" of backfield men and other innovations—some of which were made famous by the late Grantland Rice.

NEW RULES in the "game of changes" this year stipulate that goal posts will be widened from 18 feet, 6-inches to 23 feet, 4 inches, the mentor said, and a change in the substitution rule allowing a player on the bench to enter the action any time during the game as long as the clock is stopped.

Developing topnotch halfbacks and guards at YU isn't his only interest, Beede pointed out. His primary activity outside of the sport is operating a 130-acre tree farm near Elkton.

He was introduced by Frank C. Dawson, his son-in-law, who was program chairman. Guests included Cecil M. Ward of Mobile, Ala., a former school teacher in East Liverpool and Chester. The Rotary Club's annual picnic will be Aug. 24, Charles Taylor, president, announced. Sixty attended yesterday's meeting.

By R. L. LIDE

I believe it now can be said that porcupines are definitely established in Columbiana County.

The latest instance that they exist is the recent discovery on the Hubert Jones farm near St. Jacob's Church, just north of Lisbon.

Approximately 200 trees have been damaged, with the bark being eaten around the exposed roots as well as up in the trees.

So far I haven't seen where they have completely ringed the tree. If they do, the tree no doubt will be killed. Porcupines prefer beech and maple.

An attempt is being made to trap the animals, but it is not known how many exist. I don't believe one porcupine could eat so much bark in such a short period of time. Therefore, it is logical to believe a family exists.

LIKE THE deer, they just walked into this country from neighboring states. I am not against any animal when they exist in suitable habitat, but there's no room for porkys in Columbiana County. We don't have the forests.

I pity the 'coon hound who tackles one of them, or any other dog for that matter. Once they take hold of the animal they will come up with a face full of quills.

Raccoon hunters should keep their dogs at home this time of the year.

I have had several complaints from farmers and other land owners regarding the running of hounds at night. After all people sleep with their windows open during the summer and a bawling hound certainly disturbs the peace.

I cannot make arrests for running dogs, but if a dog kills a 'coon and the owner is out with it then that is where trouble comes in.

I DON'T know why any hunter would run or train his dog in the wilds this time of the year. It would be a lot more sporting, to say the least, to give wildlife a chance to grow up without being killed by dogs. Worse yet is the ill will it creates among the farmers.

If any person is out running his dogs without the land owner's consent, the proper procedure is to order the person off the premises.

If he comes back on your land, then call the constable. He can arrest the offender for trespassing. Game protectors are not peace officers and cannot make this kind of an arrest. They come in when birds or animals are being killed. But they do not have control over dogs or this type of trespassing.

IN DAYTON, Ohio, recently I heard a mocking bird singing. I walked about a block and a half and located the bird. In this vicinity I saw and heard a dozen or more.

The game protector in Greene County told me they had lots of them, but that was as far north as they could be found. I watched one fly straight up in the air, pick off a bug and light back down on the telephone pole without missing a note. I always associated mocking birds with the deep south. Our native catbirds and brown thrashers do a fair job imitating the mocking bird songs, but they are not as loud and rapid fire as a mocking bird.

All Brownies Will Get Chance In Steeler Tilt

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Coach Paul Brown says he hopes to get all his players into the Cleveland Browns' first exhibition game in Pittsburgh next Tuesday night, including the rookies.

But Brown will feed the new men into action a few at a time, he said, because he wants them to be surrounded with plenty of experience.

The Steelers were the hottest club in the National Football League's Eastern Division the latter half of the 1958 season. Quarterback Bobby Layne, a big factor in getting them clicking, remains their key man.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will average near to a little above normal. Normal high 83-86, normal low 62-64. Warm and humid Thursday, cooler Friday and Saturday, warmer Sunday, cooler Monday. Rainfall will average one-quarter to three-quarters of an inch but locally heavier in scattered thundershowers Thursday and Friday.

College Stars Nip Bears 7-6

RENSSELAER, Ind. (AP) —The College All-Stars passed their first test against professional competition Tuesday but Coach Otto Graham wasn't satisfied with his squad's performance.

"We still have a lot of work ahead of us," said Graham after his All-Stars had defeated the Chicago Bears 7-6 in an exhibition scrimmage at St. Joseph's College.

"This game will do us a lot of good," said Graham, "but we face a tough club in Baltimore. We were pretty sloppy out there."

The All-Stars, who meet the Baltimore Colts in Chicago's Soldier Field Aug. 14, put on a 99-yard touchdown drive in the final quarter to nip the Bears.

Lee Grosscup of Utah directed the march which ended when he flipped 33 yards to Buddy Dial of Rice for the score. Sam Williams of Michigan State converted the decisive point.

The Bears scored in the second quarter when they blocked an All-Star put and Bill George picked up the ball and ran 24 yards for the touchdown.

Nieman Says Owners 'Steam-Rollered' Game

BALTIMORE (AP) — The players wanted the second All-Star baseball game to start next year "but the owners steam-rollered it in this season," Bob Nieman of the Baltimore Orioles claimed today.

"They (the owners) saw a chance to pack that Los Angeles bowl with maybe 90,000 people," said Nieman who is the Baltimore player representative.

"Don't forget the owners get 40 per cent of the gate."

North-South Gridders Open Drills Today

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Uniformed, photographed, and declared physically fit after arriving here Tuesday, 50 high school football stars settle down to serious practice today for the 14th annual Ohio North-South All - Star game at Fawcett Stadium Aug. 15.

Rain interfered a bit with Tuesday's unlimbering, but the North squad held sprints in which Lon Lisbon of Youngstown South, Dave Eckard of Coventry and Leo Caito of Cleveland Cathedral Latin were speediest.

The South squad has the biggest and smallest players selected for the All-Star game. Ken Olenick, Cincinnati Purcell tackle, is the big boy at 249 pounds, and halfback Ken Johnson of New Concord is smallest at 159.

Johnson and halfback Chuck Young of Van Wert never have played in a losing football game —a record they hope to maintain through the All-Star contest.

In previous North-South games, the Yankees have won six, lost five and tied two.

Champs Crowned In Pistol Tourney

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP) — The new national pistol champions are a husky army master sergeant, winner for the sixth time, and an attractive 26-year-old mother from Lawton, Okla., who is brand new to the event this year.

M.Sgt. Huelet Benner, 42, of West Point, N. Y., shot 2615 out of a possible 2700 to finish just one point ahead of Marine Capt. William McMillan of Turtle Creek, Pa.

The three-day competition included firing with the .22, .38 and .45 caliber pistols.

Mrs. Irma Tesch, who came to the United States from Wiesbaden, Germany, three years ago when she married an Army warrant officer, was well ahead of 36 other women marksmen. She shot 2478 of a possible 2700. Navy Lt. Nancy Ellifrit of Wheaton, Ill. was second with 2426. Mrs. Gertrude Bachstrom of Hoquiam, Wash., who held the women's national pistol championship the last four years, was not able to defend because of ill health.

Asa Cox, a guard on the University of Florida football team, is the co-owner of a furniture business.

Pros Look Sharp As They Tune Up In Cleveland Open

CLEVELAND (AP) — Golf professionals warming up for the $25,000 Cleveland Open which begins Thursday say they like the long, open Seneca golf course.

Scores in the four-day, 72-hole tour of the 6,966-yard layout are expected to reflect this liking. A 12-under-par 272 will be needed to win, George Valuck, club professional course operator, predicts.

Bert Weaver of Beaumont, Tex., a former golf captain at Louisiana State, shot a 33-33 Tuesday for five under par. And this with the course still soaked from heavy rains.

Dow Finsterwald, 1958 national PGA champion, shot a 69 and guessed the tournament would be won by a score of around 275 or even lower if the course dries out.

Cary Middlecoff, who won the Manikiki Open here in 1953, called the Seneca layout "a good course and plenty long." There are two 608-yard holes.

Art Wall Jr., leading 1959 money winner, is paired with Gene Littler and Ted Kroll to tee off at 9:36 a.m. (EDT) in the opening round. Middlecoff, Arnold Palmer and Billy Casper, reigning National Open champion, are in an early threesome at 9:04 a.m.

I believe it now can be said that porcupines are definitely established in Columbiana County.

The latest instance that they exist is the recent discovery on the Hubert Jones farm near St. Jacob's Church, just north of Lisbon.

Approximately 200 trees have been damaged, with the bark being eaten around the exposed roots as well as up in the trees.

So far I haven't seen where they have completely ringed the tree. If they do, the tree no doubt will be killed. Porcupines prefer beech and maple.

An attempt is being made to trap the animals, but it is not known how many exist. I don't believe one porcupine could eat so much bark in such a short period of time. Therefore, it is logical to believe a family exists.

LIKE THE deer, they just walked into this country from neighboring states. I am not against any animal when they exist in suitable habitat, but there's no room for porkys in Columbiana County. We don't have the forests.

I pity the 'coon hound who tackles one of them, or any other dog for that matter. Once they take hold of the animal they will come up with a face full of quills.

Raccoon hunters should keep their dogs at home this time of the year.

I have had several complaints from farmers and other land owners regarding the running of hounds at night. After all people sleep with their windows open during the summer and a bawling hound certainly disturbs the peace.

I cannot make arrests for running dogs, but if a dog kills a 'coon and the owner is out with it then that is where trouble comes in.

I DON'T know why any hunter would run or train his dog in the wilds this time of the year. It would be a lot more sporting, to say the least, to give wildlife a chance to grow up without being killed by dogs. Worse yet is the ill will it creates among the farmers.

If any person is out running his dogs without the land owner's consent, the proper procedure is to order the person off the premises.

If he comes back on your land, then call the constable. He can arrest the offender for trespassing. Game protectors are not peace officers and cannot make this kind of an arrest. They come in when birds or animals are being killed. But they do not have control over dogs or this type of trespassing.

IN DAYTON, Ohio, recently I heard a mocking bird singing. I walked about a block and a half and located the bird. In this vicinity I saw and heard a dozen or more.

The game protector in Greene County told me they had lots of them, but that was as far north as they could be found. I watched one fly straight up in the air, pick off a bug and light back down on the telephone pole without missing a note. I always associated mocking birds with the deep south. Our native catbirds and brown thrashers do a fair job imitating the mocking bird songs, but they are not as loud and rapid fire as a mocking bird.

All Brownies Will Get Chance In Steeler Tilt

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Coach Paul Brown says he hopes to get all his players into the Cleveland Browns' first exhibition game in Pittsburgh next Tuesday night, including the rookies.

But Brown will feed the new men into action a few at a time, he said, because he wants them to be surrounded with plenty of experience.

The Steelers were the hottest club in the National Football League's Eastern Division the latter half of the 1958 season. Quarterback Bobby Layne, a big factor in getting them clicking, remains their key man.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will average near to a little above normal. Normal high 83-86, normal low 62-64. Warm and humid Thursday, cooler Friday and Saturday, warmer Sunday, cooler Monday. Rainfall will average one-quarter to three-quarters of an inch but locally heavier in scattered thundershowers Thursday and Friday.

College Stars Nip Bears 7-6

RENSSELAER, Ind. (AP) —The College All-Stars passed their first test against professional competition Tuesday but Coach Otto Graham wasn't satisfied with his squad's performance.

"We still have a lot of work ahead of us," said Graham after his All-Stars had defeated the Chicago Bears 7-6 in an exhibition scrimmage at St. Joseph's College.

"This game will do us a lot of good," said Graham, "but we face a tough club in Baltimore. We were pretty sloppy out there."

The All-Stars, who meet the Baltimore Colts in Chicago's Soldier Field Aug. 14, put on a 99-yard touchdown drive in the final quarter to nip the Bears.

Lee Grosscup of Utah directed the march which ended when he flipped 33 yards to Buddy Dial of Rice for the score. Sam Williams of Michigan State converted the decisive point.

The Bears scored in the second quarter when they blocked an All-Star put and Bill George picked up the ball and ran 24 yards for the touchdown.

5 Pass Tests For Custodian

Five of 10 men, who took a Municipal Civil Service Commission examination for school custodians, scored passing grades, the commission announced today.

The score of one man was thrown out today, the commission said, after an investigation failed to show his application was submitted before the July 25 deadline.

The application was submitted to Supt. Ralph W. Betts' office but the commission allowed the candidate to take the examination, ruling it was filed in error. However, when the application did not reveal the date it was submitted, the commission ruled his score could not be counted.

Sen. Blake Faces Quiz On Lobby

State Sen. Arthur Blake of Martins Ferry will be called before the Franklin County Grand Jury investigating lobbying activities in the State Legislature.

Prosecutor Earl W. Allison said at Columbus he will call for the hotel records of the district Democrat and those of Rep. James D. McGettrick of Rocky River for the jury's examination when it convenes Thursday.

The prosecutor issued subpoenas for the Hotel Deshler Hilton accounts of Blake, who is serving his sixth term in the Senate, and McGettrick, former minority leader in the House, also in his sixth term, going back to Jan. 1, 1955.

In addition, Allison called for the complete hotel records for Sen. Anthony O. Calabrese (D-Cleveland) and Robert E. Scott, lobbyist for the Ohio Coal Producers Association, back to the same date.

Reached at his farm near Martins Ferry, Blake said he had "no comment."

"I always paid my hotel bills and I paid them myself," he added.

The probe is attempting to see if lobbyists won votes by paying bills for legislators.

School Dates Are Advanced At Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The Little Rock School Board Tuesday night advanced the scheduled opening date for the city's high schools three weeks, then emphatically denied that fear of legislative interference with its integration plan had prompted the move.

The board voted unanimously to open the four high schools, closed for a year against integration, Aug. 12, instead of Sept. 8, when junior high and elementary schools will start their term.

Board President Everett Tucker Jr. said the board is "familiar with rumors that (Gov. Orval E.) Faubus might call the Legislature into session."

"But those rumors had nothing to do with this decision," Tucker said. "The board felt these students, who have been out of the public school system for a year, needed additional time to prepare for resuming their studies."

The new opening date was proposed in a motion by Ted Lamb, one of three board members who openly oppose Faubus' school policies. The motion was adopted, without discussion, after Supt. Terrell Powell had assured the board schools could be ready for opening by the new date.

Faubus, who called a special session in 1958 to obtain passage of laws which enabled him to close the schools against integration last fall, was out of the city and unavailable for comment.

But he has been critical of the board's plan to assign six Negroes to two once-white schools and has hinted the Legislature might be called to prevent it. A federal court struck down the 1958 school closing law last June.

Vets Reminded Of Loan Deadline

World War II veterans now have virtually one full year left in which to apply for GI home, farm or business loans, William Holsinger, manager of the Cleveland Regional Office of the Veterans Administration, reminded.

Congress has set July 25, 1960, as the cut-off date in the post-war program that has seen nearly 5 million World War II veterans take advantage of the GI Bill loan provisions since June 22, 1944. Applications for loans must be filed with the VA on or before the cut-off date.

These dates do not pertain to Korean veterans who have until Jan. 31, 1965, to make loan applications. If a World War II veteran also served in the Korean Conflict he has until the 1965 date.

Under the GI loan program, qualified World War II veterans are offered the opportunity to obtain VA guaranteed or insured loans to purchase, build or improve a home and buy or expand a business.

Nationwide, 35 per cent of eligible World War II veterans have taken advantage of the loan program. While the Cleveland Regional Office does not break down its loan programs by wars, Holsinger estimated that on the national basis some 300,000 veterans in Ohio have received such loans.

An exceptionally low record of defaults has won the high approval of the nation's financial leaders and an extremely high percentage of the loans have been repaid in advance of the final due dates, he said.

New Housing Bill Heads For Senate Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new housing bill headed toward the Senate today with Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.) contending its $1,050,000,000 cost is a rock bottom figure.

The Housing subcommittee which Sparkman heads wrote the measure in an effort to get omnibus housing legislation this year which President Eisenhower will sign.

If its provisions are accepted, Sparkman said, there should be no need for another major housing bill next year.

The total was well under the $1,375,000,000 in the bill Eisenhower vetoed June 7. But it still contained bigger authorizations than the 810 million asked by the President.

The new bill also contained more public housing, a new program of loans for college classrooms, and direct government loans for housing for the elderly —all items which Eisenhower had asked be eliminated entirely.

Sparkman said he and Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.), senior Republican on the subcommittee, had agreed that the new bill should be approved by the full Banking Committee, the Senate, the House and the President.

Sparkman said he expects it to reach the Senate floor next week after action by the Senate Banking Committee Tuesday.

The subcommittee wrote the new bill after voting 5-4 not to recommend an attempt to override Eisenhower's veto of the earlier measure.

Station Wagon Driver Due Hearing In Crash

The driver of a 1956 station wagon which sideswiped a 1959 Volkswagon sedan on the 1st St. overhead bridge at Chester Monday is slated for a hearing Friday before Mayor Burton Ward of Chester.

Mrs. Jonnie G. Haupricht of Maumee, Ohio, posted a $15.50 bond for a hearing on a charge of hazardous driving after her vehicle swung into the lane of the foreign auto driven by John George Cowey of Carolina Ave.

Minor damage to the Cowey auto was reported by Chester police.

South Side High Grid Aide Named

William Watt, a teacher in the Southern Beaver County school system, was appointed assistant football coach of South Side High School when the Board of Education met Monday night at the school near Hookstown.

Watt succeeds George Thompson, who resigned to enter the coaching ranks in Maryland. Thompson also coached basketball at South Side. Watt is the present head baseball coach.

Most of the board's meeting centered around a discussion of the new valuation of the county school plant brought about by the state's Tax Equilization Board.

Due to an increased market valuation of the system, the district stands to lose some $8,000 in state aid, Victor Thomas, supervisiting principal, pointed out.

The meeting was adjourned with the next to be held soon, Thomas said.

Sebring Man Jailed

LISBON — James Lewis Greenawalt, 22, of Sebring was sentenced to two months in the County Jail Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin for contributing to the delinquency of a 17-year old Beloit R. D. 2 girl. He was cited on a complaint filed by Deputy Sheriff Howard Gray.

School Dates Are Advanced At Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The Little Rock School Board Tuesday night advanced the scheduled opening date for the city's high schools three weeks, then emphatically denied that fear of legislative interference with its integration plan had prompted the move.

The board voted unanimously to open the four high schools, closed for a year against integration, Aug. 12, instead of Sept. 8, when junior high and elementary schools will start their term.

Board President Everett Tucker Jr. said the board is "familiar with rumors that (Gov. Orval E.) Faubus might call the Legislature into session."

"But those rumors had nothing to do with this decision," Tucker said. "The board felt these students, who have been out of the public school system for a year, needed additional time to prepare for resuming their studies."

The new opening date was proposed in a motion by Ted Lamb, one of three board members who openly oppose Faubus' school policies. The motion was adopted, without discussion, after Supt. Terrell Powell had assured the board schools could be ready for opening by the new date.

Faubus, who called a special session in 1958 to obtain passage of laws which enabled him to close the schools against integration last fall, was out of the city and unavailable for comment.

But he has been critical of the board's plan to assign six Negroes to two once-white schools and has hinted the Legislature might be called to prevent it. A federal court struck down the 1958 school closing law last June.

Vets Reminded Of Loan Deadline

World War II veterans now have virtually one full year left in which to apply for GI home, farm or business loans, William Holsinger, manager of the Cleveland Regional Office of the Veterans Administration, reminded.

Congress has set July 25, 1960, as the cut-off date in the post-war program that has seen nearly 5 million World War II veterans take advantage of the GI Bill loan provisions since June 22, 1944. Applications for loans must be filed with the VA on or before the cut-off date.

These dates do not pertain to Korean veterans who have until Jan. 31, 1965, to make loan applications. If a World War II veteran also served in the Korean Conflict he has until the 1965 date.

Under the GI loan program, qualified World War II veterans are offered the opportunity to obtain VA guaranteed or insured loans to purchase, build or improve a home and buy or expand a business.

Nationwide, 35 per cent of eligible World War II veterans have taken advantage of the loan program. While the Cleveland Regional Office does not break down its loan programs by wars, Holsinger estimated that on the national basis some 300,000 veterans in Ohio have received such loans.

An exceptionally low record of defaults has won the high approval of the nation's financial leaders and an extremely high percentage of the loans have been repaid in advance of the final due dates, he said.

New Housing Bill Heads For Senate Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new housing bill headed toward the Senate today with Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.) contending its $1,050,000,000 cost is a rock bottom figure.

The Housing subcommittee which Sparkman heads wrote the measure in an effort to get omnibus housing legislation this year which President Eisenhower will sign.

If its provisions are accepted, Sparkman said, there should be no need for another major housing bill next year.

The total was well under the $1,375,000,000 in the bill Eisenhower vetoed June 7. But it still contained bigger authorizations than the 810 million asked by the President.

The new bill also contained more public housing, a new program of loans for college classrooms, and direct government loans for housing for the elderly —all items which Eisenhower had asked be eliminated entirely.

Sparkman said he and Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.), senior Republican on the subcommittee, had agreed that the new bill should be approved by the full Banking Committee, the Senate, the House and the President.

Sparkman said he expects it to reach the Senate floor next week after action by the Senate Banking Committee Tuesday.

The subcommittee wrote the new bill after voting 5-4 not to recommend an attempt to override Eisenhower's veto of the earlier measure.

Station Wagon Driver Due Hearing In Crash

The driver of a 1956 station wagon on which sideswiped a 1959 Volkswagon sedan on the 1st St. overhead bridge at Chester Monday is slated for a hearing Friday before Mayor Burton Ward of Chester.

Mrs. Jonnie G. Haupricht of Maumee, Ohio, posted a $15.50 bond for a hearing on a charge of hazardous driving after her vehicle swung into the lane of the foreign auto driven by John George Cowey of Carolina Ave.

Minor damage to the Cowey auto was reported by Chester police.

South Side High Grid Aide Named

William Watt, a teacher in the Southern Beaver County school system, was appointed assistant football coach of South Side High School when the Board of Education met Monday night at the school near Hookstown.

Watt succeeds George Thompson, who resigned to enter the coaching ranks in Maryland. Thompson also coached basketball at South Side. Watt is the present head baseball coach.

Most of the board's meeting centered around a discussion of the new valuation of the county school plant brought about by the state's Tax Equilization Board.

Due to an increased market valuation of the system, the district stands to lose some $8,000 in state aid, Victor Thomas, supervisiting principal, pointed out.

The meeting was adjourned with the next to be held soon, Thomas said.

Sebring Man Jailed

LISBON — James Lewis Greenawalt, 22, of Sebring was sentenced to two months in the County Jail Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin for contributing to the delinquency of a 17-year old Beloit R. D. 2 girl. He was cited on a complaint filed by Deputy Sheriff Howard Gray.

Some Changes Are Made In Life Insurance System

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Automobile insurance rate increases caused quite a stir just before the 103rd General Assembly convened last Jan. 5.

Controlling Democrats, backed by incoming Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, called for changes in Ohio laws to prevent such increases from taking effect upon filing by companies.

Six months later the House passed a bill to require 30-day waiting periods on rate-increase filings. But the Senate quit work without acting on the measure. Some lawmakers blamed lack of administration push.

They said less legislation affecting insurance firms was passed than in any recent session within their memory.

One new law allows life insurance companies to loan up to 75 per cent of actual market value in the purchase of a single home. The old limit was 66 2-3 per cent.

Another prohibits the practice of some companies in requiring a home purchaser to take out a life insurance policy before granting a mortgage loan.

Other enactments permit credit unions to buy group life insurance and domestic fire insurance firms to invest in stock of life insurance concerns.

A number of licensing procedures were changed but a proposal for tight control over public insurance adjusters failed to get anywhere.

DiSalle said public hearings should be provided for before allowing automobile damage and liability rate increases such as those of last Dec. 31.

The unsuccessful House bill called for a 30-day wait after new rate filings and would have allowed the state superintendent of insurance to obtain an additional 30-day wait.

Administration spokesmen also hit a $50 deductible provision approved earlier for windstorm damage in extended coverage policies on property. The effect of that change made it necessary for policy holders to pay an additional sum to cover minor damage below $50.

County Fair To Have Record Pony Exhibit

LISBON — The Columbiana County Agricultural Society, sponsors of the annual County Fair, checked entries Monday night and reported the pony exhibit will be the largest in history. The fair will be held Aug. 25-29.

The fair usually has 125 to 150 entries but this year it tops that mark with almost 3 more weeks before entries close.

The Fair Board decided to add more pony stalls and plans to paint the stalls and race track fence.

Other entries are also above expectation at this time, according to Galen Greenisen, publicity chairman. If entries keep coming in at the present rate, the fair will be larger than last year.

Hearing Is Continued In Ex-Officer's Suit

LISBON — A preliminary hearing was continued Monday afternoon to give time to amend the petition in the case of William G. Ritchie, former Salem policeman seeking reinstatement and back pay.

Salem City Solicitor James Primm had asked that the petition be dismissed for technical error but Judge Joel H. Sharp allowed the plaintiff to amend the original petition instead of dismissing this case and starting another.

After the amendment, the city will be allowed to answer and the case is not expected to be heard before the September term.

Governor To Eye Fund Awarded To City Man

A $20,000 award to an East Liverpool man for injuries he received when working in a prison honor camp is being examined carefully by Gov. Michael DiSalle before approving the claims passed by the state legislature.

A total of $1,337,397 in claims to individuals, companies and local governments was approved by the legislature, including $20,000 to Eldon L. Barnett of East Liverpool, whose right leg and knee were severely injured by a rolling log when working at the Hocking Honor Camp in 1957.

Ohio State University is scheduled to receive $1,207 of the amount for hospital bills.

Man Claims Wallet Taken In Poolroom

A city man reported to police Monday afternoon his wallet containing $189 was lifted from his pocket while he was in a poolroom.

John McThena, 404 Elm St., said the wallet was taken while he was seated in the American Poolroom on E. 6th St. He discovered the theft about 3:30 p. m., he said.

The wallet contained 9 $20's, 1 $5 and 4 $1's, police were told.

Meanwhile, police reported a small amount of change was stolen from the Standard Oil Co.'s bulk plant on Gaston St. by a thief who broke a window early Monday night to gain entrance.

It's safe to store frozen sausage and ground meat for about a month in a home freezer.

Florida Man Jailed For Grand Jury Action

LISBON — Eugene Hunter, 24, of Jacksonville, Fla., arrested Sunday for the theft of a 1959 car of a district man, was bound over to the September Grand Jury at a hearing before Mayor John Todd Monday night.

Hunter, charged with the theft of a car of Leland Biggins of Thomas Rd., pleaded innocent. His bond was set at $5,000. Hunter, who found a job with an auto thrill show which played here Saturday, was arrested at Canton with the show while wearing shoes which Biggins identified as his.

House Group Spurs Action On Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Judiciary Committee leaders said they expect to finish work today on a civil rights bill.

That prediction came from both Chairman Emanuel Celler (D - N.Y.), and Rep. William M. McCullough (R - Ohio), senior GOP member, despite a last-minute effort to reopen the issue of racial discrimination in government contract employment.

With Congress expected to adjourn within a month, time is running out for passage of a bill to broaden the 1957 Civil Rights Act, especially in fields related to school integration. Even if the committee finishes a bill today for House action, it faces possible Southern delay in the Rules Committee. Civil rights legislation has made slower progress in the Senate.

Some Republican members of the House Judiciary Committee more than a week ago joined Southerners in knocking the government contract provision out of the pending bill. President Eisenhower had proposed establishment of a commission to push enforcement of the provisions in government contracts against job discrimination.

It was learned, however, that at recent closed committee sessions there has been talk of reconsidering this vote and restoring the commission section.

Chairman Celler confirmed that there may be such an attempt. "Some of the Republicans are having second thoughts," he said.

Southerners were confident they could have a reconsideration motion ruled out on the parliamentary ground that it comes too late.

The committee has up for discussion sections on aid for integrating school districts and provisions for education of servicemen's families in areas where local officials might close public schools ordered to integrate.

Godfrey Begins Work On His Comeback Show

HONOLULU (AP)—Arthur Godfrey has resumed his place before television cameras the first time since his April cancer operation.

With Waikiki Beach and the Pacific as background, Godfrey Tuesday made a portion of his hour-long comeback show to be presented Sept. 16.

He came here Saturday for a 10-day visit.

Peachy Veal Cutlets Look Good, Taste Better

An artist with oils or a photograph in color just couldn't do justice to this superb dish featuring veal cutlets in combination with peaches, raisins, lemon juice and curry powder.

Veal Cutlets — Peach Sauce

2 veal round steaks, cut ½ inch thick
1 teaspoon curry powder
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 can (16 ounces) sliced peaches
Water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons raisins
½ cup water
2 teaspoons cornstarch

Cut each veal steak into 3 servings of cutlets. Mix together curry powder, salt, pepper and flour. Pound seasoned flour into cutlets. Brown cutlets in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings.

Drain peaches, reserving juice. Add enough water to peach juice to make 1 cup liquid. Add 1 cup liquid, lemon juice and raisins to veal cutlets.

Cover tightly and cook slowly for 45 minutes or until veal is tender. Remove meat to platter. Combine ½ cup water and cornstarch and add to liquid in pan.

Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened and clear. Add peach slices and heat through. Serve peach sauce over meat. Yield: 6 servings.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

One Improvement Leads To Another

My favorite actress, Helen Hayes, is just a whiff over 5 feet tall. Amazed that she can play the role of a tall, stately queen with absolute conviction, I asked her secret. Miss Hayes gave this significant explanation: "I think tall. I'm resolute about it, then I feel tall."

Ida Jean Kain

So take a tip from a superb actress. Think tall and you will feel tall and slim. . . silken slim through the middle measurement. Get your posture on the beam and you can streamline the frontline, minimize your hips, slim the waist and lift the bust.

Let the lift be in that order, starting with the lower abdominal muscles. The streamlining trick is to lift your weight by pulling up with the middle muscles, beginning at the pelvic girdle. At the same time contract, the big hip muscles. Fore and aft bulges disappear.

THE TECHNIQUE is to pull up-and-in. . .with emphasis on the up. You can't hold the stomach in, but you can pull up-and-in. Keep shoulders relaxed, squared and down.

Center the lift through the midsection. This uplift leads to a feeling of buoyancy. In sitting, sit up, so you do not have wrinkles at the waist. Touch back of hips against chair back. . .always.

Proud that you have reduced a few pounds, you will feel like standing tall. This in turn bolsters your self-esteem and your new found confidence is reflected in the way you stand and move. One improvement leads to another.

The best possible exercise is the practice of good posture. Recall the admonition a splendidly erect army officer gave to the matron who asked if he exercised. . ."Madam, I am exercising right now!", he barked.

To make good posture a natural, restore tone to the figure controlling middle muscles. Here are two effective exercises:

Action: Bend slowly toward right side, reaching down with fingers of right hand and stretching up with left hand. Try to touch floor at right. Don't crumple through the middle — maintain a strong up-and-in pull. Back to center, bend to the other side. Repeat 8 times, alternating sides.

POSITION: Sit on floor, legs separated widely, have arms outstretched at sides, shoulder level. Pull slim through the middle and hold the up-and-in pull throughout the exercise.

Practice correct posture, since that amounts to continual exercise.

Send a stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for "Get A Lift With Posture." Address request to Ida Jean Kain in care of this newspaper. Post card requests can not be answered.

DiSalle Plans Tax Tour By End Of Month

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he will begin his long-promised tax explanation tour of Ohio the last week of August.

No schedule has been set, he said Tuesday, for the tour on which he intends to explain to Ohioans what they are getting for their tax dollars.

The trip will follow a 10-day vacation by DiSalle which starts at final adjournment of the Legislature.

Today, DiSalle goes to Toledo for the 76th birthday of his mother. This is the governor's third trip outside the Columbus area since he took office. He said he made a trip to Toledo last Mother's Day. He also visited the Mount Vernon area during the floods early this year.

The governor said he is reviewing appropriations of about $52,000 to pay claims of injured prisoners of the state.

Triangle Hearing Is Reset On Coast

WEST COVINA, Calif. (AP)—The preliminary hearing for Carole Tregoff on a charge she helped her physician - boyfriend murder his wife has been put off a week.

The hearing was reset for Aug. 11 Tuesday so Miss Tregoff's recently hired attorney could familiarize himself with the case.

The 22-year-old divorcee wept as she appeared in court for the resetting. She is alleged to have joined wealthy Dr. Bernard Finch, 41, in killing Mrs. Barbara Finch, 33, the night of July 18.

At Dr. Finch's preliminary hearing, Miss Tregoff testified she loved him and had been intimate with him. Dr. Finch is scheduled to enter a plea on the murder charge Aug. 17.

Portsmouth Residents Given 'Crash' Scare

CINCINNATI (AP) — A two-motor Air Force cargo plane gave Portsmouth residents a "crash" scare Tuesday before landing safely at Greater Cincinnati Airport.

The pilot, Col. Harry C. Morrison, said he had to empty some gasoline into the Ohio River at Portsmouth.

This apparently led to reports the plane was afire and crashed. The C47 was en route to Oklahoma City from McGuire Field, N. J.

The pilot, an ROTC instructor at Rutgers, said oil trouble caused him to shut off one engine near Portsmouth, and he had to drop the fuel to maintain altitude.

House Group Spurs Action On Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Judiciary Committee leaders said they expect to finish work today on a civil rights bill.

That prediction came from both Chairman Emanuel Celler (D - N.Y.), and Rep. William M. McCullough (R - Ohio), senior GOP member, despite a last-minute effort to reopen the issue of racial discrimination in government contract employment.

With Congress expected to adjourn within a month, time is running out for passage of a bill to broaden the 1957 Civil Rights Act, especially in fields related to school integration. Even if the committee finishes a bill today for House action, it faces possible Southern delay in the Rules Committee. Civil rights legislation has made slower progress in the Senate.

Some Republican members of the House Judiciary Committee more than a week ago joined Southerners in knocking the government contract provision out of the pending bill. President Eisenhower had proposed establishment of a commission to push enforcement of the provisions in government contracts against job discrimination.

It was learned, however, that at recent closed committee sessions there has been talk of reconsidering this vote and restoring the commission section.

Chairman Celler confirmed that there may be such an attempt.

"Some of the Republicans are having second thoughts," he said.

Southerners were confident they could have a reconsideration motion ruled out on the parliamentary ground that it comes too late.

The committee has up for discussion sections on aid for integrating school districts and provisions for education of servicemen's families in areas where local officials might close public schools ordered to integrate.

Godfrey Begins Work On His Comeback Show

HONOLULU (AP)—Arthur Godfrey has resumed his place before television cameras the first time since his April cancer operation.

With Waikiki Beach and the Pacific as background, Godfrey Tuesday made a portion of his hour-long comeback show to be presented Sept. 16.

He came here Saturday for a 10-day visit.

Peachy Veal Cutlets Look Good, Taste Better

An artist with oils or a photograph in color just couldn't do justice to this superb dish featuring veal cutlets in combination with peaches, raisins, lemon juice and curry powder.

Veal Cutlets — Peach Sauce

2 veal round steaks, cut ½ inch thick
1 teaspoon curry powder
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 can (16 ounces) sliced peaches
Water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons raisins
½ cup water
2 teaspoons cornstarch

Cut each veal steak into 3 servings of cutlets. Mix together curry powder, salt, pepper and flour. Pound seasoned flour into cutlets. Brown cutlets in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings.

Drain peaches, reserving juice. Add enough water to peach juice to make 1 cup liquid. Add 1 cup liquid, lemon juice and raisins to veal cutlets.

Cover tightly and cook slowly for 45 minutes or until veal is tender. Remove meat to platter. Combine ½ cup water and cornstarch and add to liquid in pan.

Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened and clear. Add peach slices and heat through. Serve peach sauce over meat. Yield: 6 servings.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

One Improvement Leads To Another

My favorite actress, Helen Hayes, is just a whiff over 5 feet tall. Amazed that she can play the role of a tall, stately queen with absolute conviction, I asked her secret. Miss Hayes gave this significant explanation: "I think tall. I'm resolute about it, then I feel tall."

Ida Jean Kain

So take a tip from a superb actress. Think tall and you will feel tall and slim. . . silken slim through the middle measurement. Get your posture on the beam and you can streamline the frontline, minimize your hips, slim the waist and lift the bust.

Let the lift be in that order, starting with the lower abdominal muscles. The streamlining trick is to lift your weight by pulling up with the middle muscles, beginning at the pelvic girdle. At the same time contract, the big hip muscles. Fore and aft bulges disappear.

THE TECHNIQUE is to pull up-and-in. . .with emphasis on the up. You can't hold the stomach in, but you can pull up-and-in. Keep shoulders relaxed, squared and down.

Center the lift through the midsection. This uplift leads to a feeling of buoyancy. In sitting, sit up, so you do not have wrinkles at the waist. Touch back of hips against chair back. . .always.

Proud that you have reduced a few pounds, you will feel like standing tall. This in turn bolsters your self-esteem and your new found confidence is reflected in the way you stand and move. One improvement leads to another.

The best possible exercise is the practice of good posture. Recall the admonition a splendidly erect army officer gave to the matron who asked if he exercised. . ."Madam, I am exercising right now!", he barked.

To make good posture a natural, restore tone to the figure controlling middle muscles. Here are two effective exercises:

Position: "Stand" on knees, then sit on heels. Hold arms out at sides, shoulder level. Pull snugly up and in with abdominal muscles.

Action: Bend slowly toward right side, reaching down with fingers of right hand and stretching up with left hand. Try to touch floor at right. Don't crumple through the middle — maintain a strong up-and-in pull. Back to center, bend to the other side. Repeat 8 times, alternating sides.

POSITION: Sit on floor, legs separated widely, have arms outstretched at sides, shoulder level. Pull slim through the middle and hold the up-and-in pull throughout the exercise.

Practice correct posture, since that amounts to continual exercise.

Send a stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for "Get A Lift With Posture." Address request to Ida Jean Kain in care of this newspaper. Post card requests can not be answered.

DiSalle Plans Tax Tour By End Of Month

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he will begin his long-promised tax explanation tour of Ohio the last week of August.

No schedule has been set, he said Tuesday, for the tour on which he intends to explain to Ohioans what they are getting for their tax dollars.

The trip will follow a 10-day vacation by DiSalle which starts at final adjournment of the Legislature.

Today, DiSalle goes to Toledo for the 76th birthday of his mother. This is the governor's third trip outside the Columbus area since he took office. He said he made a trip to Toledo last Mother's Day. He also visited the Mount Vernon area during the floods early this year.

The governor said he is reviewing appropriations of about $52,000 to pay claims of injured prisoners of the state.

Triangle Hearing Is Reset On Coast

WEST COVINA, Calif. (AP)—The preliminary hearing for Carole Tregoff on a charge she helped her physician - boyfriend murder his wife has been put off a week.

The hearing was reset for Aug. 11 Tuesday so Miss Tregoff's recently hired attorney could familiarize himself with the case.

The 22-year-old divorcee wept as she appeared in court for the resetting. She is alleged to have joined wealthy Dr. Bernard Finch, 41, in killing Mrs. Barbara Finch, 33, the night of July 18.

At Dr. Finch's preliminary hearing, Miss Tregoff testified she loved him and had been intimate with him. Dr. Finch is scheduled to enter a plea on the murder charge Aug. 17.

Portsmouth Residents Given 'Crash' Scare

CINCINNATI (AP) — A two-motor Air Force cargo plane gave Portsmouth residents a "crash" scare Tuesday before landing safely at Greater Cincinnati Airport.

The pilot, Col. Harry C. Morrison, said he had to empty some gasoline into the Ohio River at Portsmouth.

This apparently led to reports the plane was afire and crashed. The C47 was en route to Oklahoma City from McGuire Field, N. J.

The pilot, an ROTC instructor at Rutgers, said oil trouble caused him to shut off one engine near Portsmouth, and he had to drop the fuel to maintain altitude.

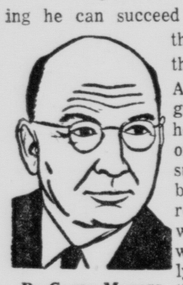
How Youngsters Take Advantage Of Parents

Practically every youngster learns, even in early infancy, to outwit his parents, soon discovering he can succeed with one of them better than the other. As the child grows older, he capitalizes on his earlier successes and builds up rich resources for winning his way. Very early he discovers that the mother or father who does not give him right away what he begs or cries for may do so if he cries hard and long enough.



By Garry Meyers

LATER HE learns that if told No regarding some request of his, the parent may reverse this decision, especially if the child gets angry enough. Accordingly, a tantrum may prove very useful to this youngster for winning. Indeed, most tantrums seem to develop in this way.

As the youngster grows older he may find he can, by ugly ways, by sulking, arguing or even with "crocodile tears," cause one or both parents to surrender.

The child also learns that the parent who had stated a forbidding or requirement often forgets and lets the matter go by default, or just weakens by and by and lets him do what she had told him he must not do, or lets him escape doing what she had told him to do.

MAYBE SHE does for him what she, a few minutes earlier, had said she wouldn't do.

For example: She's busy packing in the evening to get off early next morning for vacation. Her 11-year-old asks her to show him how to play a new game with cards. She replies: "Can't do it tonight."

Half an hour later she does show him how to play the game.

Too, the child may have discovered at the age of 3 or 10 that when the parent tells him to quit teasing the puppy, playing in the fire or the like, she merely repeats the forbidding if he doesn't quit at once.

Only when she shrieks at him angrily, at the third or tenth repetition, does he believe she means to punish him if he doesn't quit. So he takes a chance and goes on until her voice and ways portend danger to him, before he obeys.

WHEN HE finds his parents often disagreeing, in his presence, about what he should be denied or made to do, he can usually turn their disagreement to his purpose to escape obedience.

When the child, typically from 6 to 12, can get a parent into an argument with him over some parental decision he doesn't like, he can often win his way.

See how this youngster plays on the parents' frailties, when he can, to get this parent on the witness stand and question and cross-question him.

My bulletin "Tantrums" may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

20 At Lawrenceville Legion Post Meeting

About 20 attended a meeting of the Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 Monday night.

Charles Huffman was named general chairman of a past commanders' party to be held Aug. 14. Huffman and Wilbur Melott reported on the West Virginia American Legion convention at Parkersburg in July.

Reports were heard from the building committee. Lunch was served. Leroy Dunham, commander, presided. The next meeting will be Aug. 17.

Wellsville Legion To Sponsor Firemen's Fair Concessions

Sponsorship of two concessions at the Calcutta firemen's fair this week was approved by Wellsville American Legion Post 70 Monday night at the post home.

One of the booths will be sponsored by the Curbstone Coaches with William Powell, president, in charge. The post's proceeds will be used for child welfare work.

Robert Lowther, commander, said post officers will meet next Monday night with Vincent Risko of Canton, a wrestling promoter, to plan for a mat show at Nicholson Stadium in the near future. Proceeds will be used for the post building fund.

Lowther signed contracts with the Heck Amusement Co. to provide rides for the next carnival in 1960.

Harry Excell and Mel Gitschier, co-chairmen of the membership committee, reported the 1960 campaign is under way. Excell received a state citation last year for membership enrollment. He said teams will be formed for the drive, and prizes awarded.

A lunch was held honoring Robert Excell, a post member who is visiting from California. He received a gift from the post. James Faloon was in charge of the luncheon.

Earl Smith said plans are being made for a trip to the Steelers-Giants professional football game at Pittsburgh in October.

Powell said the officers of the Curbstone Coaches will attend the West Virginia-Ohio All-Star football game at Wheeling this month.

The post will meet again Monday night.

Motorists Warned On No-Parking Areas

Police Chief Americo J. Radeschi warned motorists today a new city ordinance banning parking on both sides of a long list of streets becomes effective Thursday.

The streets include both sides of E. 3rd St. from Market to College Sts. and Crook Alley between E. 4th and E. 5th Sts., he emphasized.

Motorists will be tagged for violations, starting Thursday, he warned.

The ordinance includes many streets on which parking on both sides formerly was banned. It was passed July 6 by Council.

Save the livers from broiler-fryers and put them in your freezer. When you're ready to use them, thaw and cook in a little butter. Mash fine and combine with the yolks of hard-cooked eggs, plus seasonings, for deviled eggs.
